Dinner with Archbishop Rozanski - Dinner is served!

Dine with the Archbishop in a completely restored historic Central West End mansion built in 1891. Since 1924, when the Archdiocese of St. Louis acquired the property located at 4510 Lindell Boulevard, it has been the residence of each St. Louis Archbishop. A chapel was added in 1939. Pope John Paul II was a guest at the residence in January 1999 when he visited St. Louis. This delightful dinner for 10 will take place on March 11, 2022 at 6:00 p.m.

Three-night Stay at the St. Regis New York

Live like an Astor, Sip Cocktails with Mad Men, Shop at Saks, Walk to St. Patrick's or Central Park—and don't be surprised if you pass James Bond in the Lobby.

Spend three nights at the historic St. Regis Hotel on Fifth Avenue, in New York. Founded by one of the Astors, the St. Regis retains the elegance of another era while having all the most modern amenities. Just a few minutes from St. Patrick's Cathedral, Central Park and Carnegie Hall, it places you at once at the center of everything and in an island of peace amid the bustling city. Relax over cocktails in the King Cole Bar Spa before or after you explore the attractions of New York.

This package includes a one-bedroom suite with a convertible bed in the sitting room so two couples can stay in it comfortably; morning coffee and fruit; the pressing of two outfits on arrival; and your own personal butler for the entire stay. Mutually agreed upon date.
