WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

As you enter the Cathedral Basilica this week, you will notice that the Christmas decorations have all been removed and are now placed in storage until next year. I would like to take this opportunity to express gratitude to our staff and many volunteers who assisted in the long process of decorating the Basilica. It truly looked stunning this year and many of our visitors to the Cathedral commented on how beautiful it looked.

Things will look darker in the Cathedral Basilica this week as we progress through our interior lighting project's Phase One. Electricians on Tuesday disconnected the power and control lines to the Main Dome so that new lines could be run through the same conduit. The hope is that the new fixtures will arrive in about seven weeks and be installed. Of course, this is all dependent on the supply chain working as expected. Thank you, in advance, for your patience, as we work to improve the lighting of the interior of the Cathedral.

With the celebration of the Baptism of the Lord, we have entered into the season of Ordinary Time. Our attention is now drawn away from the Christ child lying in the manger to Christ alive in the world. There is a biblical theme that I would like to propose to you as we enter into the new year: "Pray without ceasing" (1 Thes 5: 17). St. Paul addressed the community of Thessalonica, which was experiencing inner disputes and conflicts in order to appeal forcefully for certain fundamental attitudes among which stands out ceaseless prayer.

With this invitation, He wanted to make people understand that the capacity to overcome all selfishness, to live together in peace and fraternal union, and for each one to bear the burdens and suffering of others comes from new life in Christ and in the Holy Spirit. We must never tire of praying for unity and peace in our world! When Jesus prayed at the Last Supper that "they may all be one," he had a precise goal in mind: "so that the world may believe" (Jn 17: 21).

This message is particularly apropos as we celebrate the Annual Archdiocesan Mass for Preservation of Peace and Justice which seeks to commemorate the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Vicar General, Msgr. Dennis Stehly, will be the main celebrant and homilist for the Mass on Sunday, January 15th at 2:30 pm. The Cathedral will be filled with songs and prayers praying for peace.

"All that I am saying is simply this, that all life is inter-related. We are caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, tied in a single garment of destiny. So that whatever affects one directly, will affect all indirectly."

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

We're being sent on a mission in a new way

As with many of life's changes, we pray that our excitement, sadness and trepidation will be rooted in Christ

ARCHBISHOP
ROZANSKI

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The Letter to the Hebrews, which we read this week, carries a sense of excitement for the new things that have dawned in Christ. I think it provides some important lessons for us as we continue to work on the All Things New pastoral plan.

On a human level, a sense of excitement accompanies every graduation: eighth grade, high school, college and so on. The excitement comes, interestingly, from something that's partly unknown. We don't know exactly what the next step will hold. But we're still excited to take it.

There's a certain sadness with every graduation, too, as there should be! Something good is being lost. But the sadness doesn't stop us from taking the next step, and it shouldn't!

In both of these senses — the sadness and the excitement — All Things New is like a graduation.

Something similar happens every time we enter a new stage of life: getting a new job, living on our own for the first time, getting married or becoming a parent or a grandparent. These next steps are accompanied by excitement and trepidation. There's excitement because there's something more for us in the next stage of life. There's trepidation, too. We wonder about the challenges we'll face and whether we'll get them right.

All Things New brings that same sense of excitement and trepidation.

Note, too, with all of these — graduations, new stages of life and All Things New — it's not that what came before was bad. Quite the contrary, because what came before was good, but it's time for us to take the next step. Sadness, trepidation and excitement are all bound up together in the experience of transition.

The coming months will bring a lot of emotions. It's important to be deliberate in how we approach those emotions. Sadness can come out sideways as anger. Trepidation can turn into paralysis. Excitement can run away with us and fuel imprudent decisions. I hope we can keep our eyes fixed on Jesus and take some wisdom from other experiences of transition. That will allow us to give each emotion its proper place while moving steadily into what comes next.

The Letter to the Hebrews also draws our attention to some important symbols. It speaks of Melchizedek as a priest who foreshadowed Christ. It speaks of the tabernacle set up by Moses as a foreshadowing of heaven. Think about symbols that can help us understand the transition we're going through with All Things New, and this week's readings offer us a pretty good one: the calling of the 12 apostles (Mark 3:13-19).

The 12 were already followers of Jesus. When He called them, He reconfigured their lives in a significant way. But He reconfigured their lives precisely for the sake of the mission that He was giving them.

That strikes me as an apt symbol of what we are and will be experiencing with All Things New. We're already followers of Christ. Our experience of parish life will be reconfigured. But it will be reconfigured precisely for the sake of being sent out on mission in a new way.

Let's continue to walk forward into the excitement, sadness and trepidation of our reconfiguring and pray that it will be rooted in Christ.

This Sunday we hear from John. Last Monday, we heard Matthew's account of Jesus' baptism when we celebrated The Baptism of the Lord. Today, through the gospel, we hear John the Baptist's testimony about Jesus. The Gospel of John is different from the other accounts because John does not describe the baptism of Jesus, but rather he announces that he knows that Jesus is the Son of God.

In today's reading, John the Baptist sees Jesus approaching and cries out, giving witness to who Jesus is. In John's testimony of the event he writes that John the Baptist saw the Spirit descend upon Jesus. This is the sign that he had been waiting for to show that Jesus was the one who is to come after him.

In this moment John the Baptist uses a very important title for Jesus when he calls him the 'Lamb of God.' By doing so, John the Baptist identifies Jesus' ultimate purpose on earth; to redeem the world and so save the sinful humanity. John's witness is an excellent example of what it means to be a disciple. By our own baptism, we are called to make Jesus known to all the world by our words and by the witness of our lives.

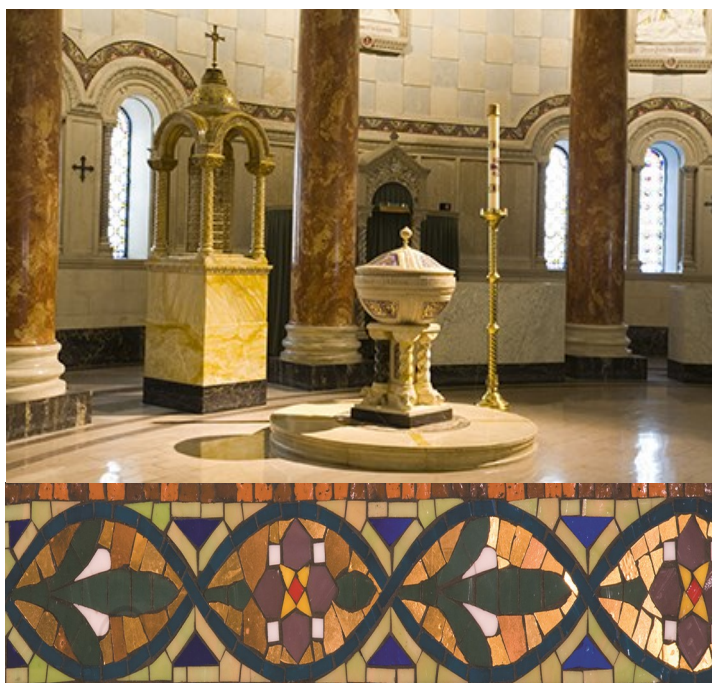

This weekend the Cathedral Basilica offers Confession Times on Saturday from 3:30 p.m. – 4:50 p.m. and on Sunday from 9:00 a.m. – 9:50 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. – 11:50 a.m.

We invite everyone to seek the forgiveness of sins through the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Sacrament of Baptism

Congratulations to Heidi Louise Heitzman daughter of Josh & Amber Heitzman, baptized in Christ on January 8, 2023 here at the Cathedral Basilica.

May the blessing of the Lord be always upon her, and may God watch over and cherish all children whom He has blessed with the grace of Baptism.

The Gospel of the Lord

John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world." He is the one of whom I said, 'A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.' I did not know him, but the reason why I came baptizing with water was that he might be made known to Israel." John testified further, saying, "I saw the spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him. I did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me 'On whom you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God."

- John 1:29-34

Men of the Cathedral January Adoration

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is a joy beyond words, as we can come close to our Lord in a very special and personal way. That joy and fulfillment is greatly enhanced when you share the experience of Adoration with others.

Begin your 2023 spiritual life by joining the MEN OF THE CATHEDRAL for the January Adoration scheduled for January 31st at 6:00 p.m. All are invited for Adoration!

Confessions will be heard during Adoration.

Following Adoration, all men are invited to Boland Hall for fellowship and dinner. An offering of $20 is suggested. Please RSVP by Monday, January 30th to Michael Weisbrod at michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org to reserve your dinner spot!

Your Caution is Requested

A necessary caution is directed to all who visit the Cathedral Basilica: carefully avoid leaving purses, packages, computers, and other valuables on the car seats or otherwise in plain view when parked on the lot or surrounding streets, even for short periods. Lock belongings in the trunk out of sight. Everyone should exercise prudent responsibility.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“When we encounter Christ, experience his love, and deepen our relationship with him, we become more aware of our own worth and that of others. His love for each person is cause for great joy, and growing understanding of this priceless treasure motivates us to share his love with others. Our lives are often changed by the witness of others; so too, others’ lives may be changed by our witness and authentic friendship with them.”

STEWARDSHIP ALIVE!

Why A Registered Parishioner

Due to the number of requests for baptisms and weddings, the Cathedral Parish adopted a policy years ago that generally requires parents to be registered parishioners of the parish before their infant may be baptized here, or for an engaged person to be a registered parishioner and practicing Catholic for a minimum of one year for preferred dates and for a more modest stipend. Non-parishioners must be registered in a Catholic parish somewhere and will need to secure their pastor's permission to be baptized or married outside of their proper parish before we can schedule any ceremony. If you attend Mass at the Cathedral regularly but have not yet registered, register online at <https://cathedralstl.org/about-basilica/parish-life> or call the parish office for more info!

Let's Keep in Touch

Don't miss out on the latest parish news this summer! Flocknotes is a fast and easy email distribution platform used by the Cathedral Basilica to keep in touch with our parishioners. Text CATHEDRALSTL to 84576, logon to cathedralstl.flocknote.com, or call the parish office to sign up today!

Anima Christi Young Adults

This week there will be a meeting on Thursday, September 15th. We will meet in the church at 6:30pm for Holy Hour followed by dinner in Boland Hall.

Hours for Fr. Marco

Fr. Marco offers spiritual discussion and confession Tuesday - Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. and 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. You will find him just off the Narthex of the Cathedral. Walk-ins are welcome and no appointment is necessary.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb..." Isaiah 49:5

God have given each of us different gifts. In order for God's plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Don't let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and become the saint that God is calling you to be.
