WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter.

Small public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment, as is access to the Cathedral Gift Shop. Large public tours are not currently available, due to the difficulty of being able to adequately social distance larger groups.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

During my time as a college Seminarian, we would attend classes at St. Louis University and on the Feast of Saint Thomas Aquinas, there would be a group of students in the College of Philosophy and Letters who would spend the feast day reading aloud the Summa Theologica. The Summa is the best known work of St. Thomas and is a compendium of all the main theological teachings of the Catholic Church. It was intended to be an instructional guide for theology students.

With his charism as a philosopher and theologian, he offered an effective model of harmony between faith and reason, dimensions of the human spirit that are completely fulfilled in the encounter and dialogue with one another.

According to St Thomas' thought, human reason, as it were, "breathes": it moves within a vast open horizon in which it can express the best of itself. When, instead, man reduces himself to thinking only of material objects or those that can be proven, he closes himself to the great questions about life, himself, and God and is thereby impoverished. The relationship between faith and reason is a serious challenge to the culture we find ourselves in today. Saint John Paul II wrote an Encyclical entitled Fides et Ratio - "Faith and Reason" - to address this topic.

I raise this topic because the state of our world seems to indicate we have left faith and reason behind. Instead of seeing "faith and reason as two wings on which the human spirit rises to the contemplation of truth" (Fides et Ratio), many have turned to the self as the center of truth, and see reason as being separate from faith. It is necessary to admit that the tendency to consider "true" only that which can be experienced constitutes a limitation of human reason, and that this tendency has led to the coexistence of rationalism and materialism, hyper-technology and unbridled instinct.

Faith presupposes reason and perfects it, and reason, enlightened by faith, finds the strength to rise to the knowledge of God and spiritual realities. Human reason loses nothing by opening itself to the content of faith, which, indeed, requires its free and conscious adherence.

Saint Thomas Aquinas, pray for us.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Focus on what we can influence

The great saints of our faith made changes by becoming something deeper within their own sphere of influence

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

It's easy to watch the news these days and criticize others. What's harder — and has always been harder — is to become something deeper and better ourselves.

In some ways, it's a question of "sphere of influence." Most of the things we see on the news are beyond our sphere of influence. They're someone else's problem.

The feast of the conversion of St. Paul (Jan. 25), however, can encourage us to focus on what falls within our sphere of influence, with our own conversion coming first. St. Paul's first responsibility was to respond to the call of Jesus Christ in his own life. Eventually, in God's providence, that had a large impact on the world. But everything flowed from St. Paul first, taking care of what lay within his sphere of influence.

In many ways, that was true of Mary, as well. Think about her small sphere of influence — living in the small village of Nazareth, in the small nation of Israel — compared to the world's problems in her day. And yet, her "Yes" to God within that small sphere of influence had huge implications for the world!

It's like the parable of the mustard seed, which Jesus uses in Friday's Gospel. The seed is very small. But if it takes care of its own growth, it has a larger impact than you might expect.

That's our story, all the way back to Abraham and his faith, and also all the way back to Adam and his sin. Whether or not we take care of what falls within our own sphere of influence has an impact — for better and for worse — on the state of the world. The temptation is to focus our attention on what lies outside our sphere of influence. The news is very good at focusing our attention there. But let's name that for what it is: a temptation.

If we see what's happening in the world and are content to criticize others who are outside our sphere of influence while taking no steps to become something deeper and better within our sphere of influence, it will call forth a like response in others. Nothing gets better that way. But if we see the problems in the world and try to be something deeper and better within our own sphere of influence, that will also call forth a like response in others. That's the only way things get better.

What can I do in my own life, in my own family, in my own work and in my own neighborhood? Perhaps I could engage in more prayer, study or service. Perhaps I could be more involved in my parish or form deeper relations at work. Perhaps I could be less susceptible to outbursts of anger, or to building dissension and factions, and more patient, kind and generous (see Galatians 5:19-23).

The great saints of Catholic history saw the problems of their times and, yes, criticized the problems of their times. But first, they spent their time and energy becoming something deeper within their own sphere of influence. Their critique was more than words. It was articulated most powerfully in a deeper life.

That's one of the great challenges of our day: to become something deeper than what we see. In the face of the world's problems, our sphere of influence may seem small. But, in God, it can have huge implications.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“Many people know someone personally who is suffering because of an abortion. If a friend confided in you tomorrow that she had an abortion, would you be able to respond in a way that brings her closer to healing? ... Even a woman who doesn’t go to church or think of herself as religious can be afraid that God will never forgive her for having an abortion. She should know that God loves and forgives those who are sorrowful. He wants to comfort them and give them his peace.”

Parish Pro-Life Ministry

The Cathedral Pro-Life Ministry is seeking new members. It wants to offer a variety of projects in the upcoming year, including a Mothers' Day rose sale, attendance at the RLA Convention, a 30-Minute Speaker Series, and annual Epiphany Supply Drive, and those projects need more volunteers.

To get involved or for more information, contact Bryan, the parish’s pro-life ministry coordinator, at bryankirchoff@att.net.

Pro-Life Mass

Remember to join us at the Cathedral Basilica on the third Saturday of each month for a pro-life Mass at 8:00 a.m., followed with a rosary procession to Planned Parenthood at Boyle and Forest Park. The next Mass is scheduled for Saturday, February 20.

Daily Readings for the Week...

The readings are included each week so that the parishioners who are unable to join us for daily Mass will be able to consider and pray them in union with the whole Church.

Subscription Sunday

The St. Louis Review is the official newspaper of the Archdiocese of St. Louis. For $35.00 a year, your weekly copy of the Review will keep you in touch with the Church in St. Louis, across the nation, and around the world. Please use the subscription renewal envelope in your January envelope packet (or write your check for $35.00 to the parish, mark it “Review”, and include your name and mailing address) and return it in any Sunday collection.

Catholic Radio

By now, you probably have packed up all your Christmas decorations and stored them for next year. We hope you haven’t put your Faith on the shelf. Faith is part of your daily life and, in this secular world, it is vital to have encouragement for the journey. Let Covenant Network help you with your daily dose of Truth with our inspiring programming. Tune into KHOJ radio AM 1460 or 92.7 FM, listen on our free app or at ourcatholicradio.org.

STEWARDSHIP ALIVE!

For the Poor

On the first Sunday of every month, the Cathedral Parish collects foodstuffs and canned goods (non-perishable items only, please!) for delivery to food pantries in the area. Our next parish food drive will be held Sunday, February 7.

Young Adult Pro-Life Holy Hour

Join the Cathedral Anima Christi and young adults (19-39) throughout the archdiocese for this annual event on Thursday, January 28, to promote a greater respect for human life. We'll start 7:00 p.m. in the Cathedral with a talk by Brian Westbrook with the Coalition for Life St. Louis, followed by a rosary, Adoration, and the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Due to COVID-19, there will be no dinner or other activities in Boland Hall this year, however the talk and rosary will be live streamed.

For additional information, please e-mail the group at AnimaChristiStL@gmail.com.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"Follow me and I will make you fishers of men."-
Mk 1:17

Jesus' call to "Follow me" is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think we are "ready" or have everything in order. Good stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren't always going to go according to our schedule and that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.

St. Patrick Casserole Program

Casseroles and other offerings collected by volunteers of the St. Patrick Casserole Program provides one week of dinners for the Women's Shelter, and one night of dinners for the Men's Alumni Club.

Cathedral casserole organizers will host our next "touchless" drop-off in the parish parking lot on Thursday, February 11, from 1:00 –2:00 p.m. Please call Skip or Nicki Batchelor at 916-834-4843 for additional information.

Eyeglass Drive

"The Respectacle Project", an eyeglass recycling program, facilitates the redistribution of quality used eyeglasses to those in need both locally and abroad. Donations are typically accepted on the first Sunday of every month. Our next eyeglass drive will be held Sunday, February 7.

St. Vincent de Paul Membership

Members of the Cathedral St. Vincent de Paul Society meet weekly. Members are committed to aiding fellow parishioners and neighbors with necessities such as food, clothing, utilities, and rent—all in the context of the Christian imperative. If interested in becoming a member or in learning more about the Society and our Conference, please leave a message on the SVDP HotLine at 314-373-8288.

Repentance

The message we hear from the Gospel reading today is one that we must hear again and again: repent and believe the good news. This is the constant task of the faithful Christian, to seek to grow in virtue and root out sinfulness. The authentic witness of a disciple who has truly repented of his sins can work wonders in the cause of evangelization. We love conversion stories of the saints and people we know in our own lives today. One who has repented and has chosen to live for Christ alone provides an extraordinary example for us who want to be better evangelists.

Did You Remember Your Gift?

It is only natural when you are invited to a party – whether it is birthday, anniversary, homecoming or any other celebration – to think about the gift that you will bring. Even when the invitation says, “No gifts, please,” most of us still show up with a bottle of wine or a box of candy or some other token of our affection. We bring gifts to show our gratitude for being invited and to show our love for the one being honored and celebrated. So, when God Himself invites you to the greatest celebration of all – the celebration of the Eucharist – do you bring a gift? Do you take time to wrap it in an envelope? Do you select a gift that truly reflects your gratitude for being invited to be a part of God’s family? Do you bring a gift that shows your love for the crucified Jesus, who we remember at every Mass? The invitation to the Mass does not say “No gifts, please.” In fact, since God first called the Israelites to be His people He taught them, “No one shall appear before the Lord empty-handed, but each of you with as much as he can give, in proportion to the blessings which the Lord, your God has bestowed on you.” - Dt 16:16-17

Watch the 5 minute “Watch Help Video” and follow the easy instructions to set up your secure account and authorize your contributions to be automatically withdrawn from your bank account on the date you specify. All of information is encrypted and stored securely.

Infant Baptism

According to the mind of the Church, parents are obliged to see that infants are baptized within the first weeks after birth. As soon as possible after the birth, or even before it, parents should request the sacrament for their child and arrange to be properly instructed in preparation for it. If you are a registered parishioner who is or is about to become a parent or godparent, please contact the rectory at 314-373-8202 to schedule a baptism.

Hearing His Call

Every baptized person has a call directly from the Lord to His service. Our discipleship is a vocation to holiness and service of the Lord. Some of the baptized receive another call, one to the specific vocation of ordained priesthood or vowed religious life. Their response to that vocational invitation requires generosity and a life long commitment. Many young people are stepping forward to respond positively to that invitation; and many more are needed. For all of them, the support of family, friends, and fellow Catholics is needed. Prayer in support of young people's vocational response is an integral and necessary component of the daily regimen of prayer for each and every Catholic, a major part of discipleship for all.

Matthew 25 Come Alive

Often we find ourselves approached on the street with requests for assistance for food or a bus pass. In order to live Matthew 25, parishioners should consider carrying fast food gift cards and a book of bus tickets. That way, you can provide substantive assistance when asked, without resorting to cash. Also, encourage those seeking assistance to call 2-1-1, United Way's assistance hotline, or the Cathedral's SVDP HotLine at 314-373-8288.

Presentation of the Lord

On Tuesday, February 2, the Church observes the feast of the Presentation of the Lord commemorating the moment on the fortieth day after the birth of Jesus that Mary and Joseph brought Him to the temple to present Him to the Lord in observance of the Law of Moses. This Gospel event was first observed as a liturgical feast in the Eastern Church as “the Encounter,” but in the sixth century it began to be observed in the West: in Rome, with a more penitential character, and in France with solemn blessing and processions of candles, popularly known as “Candlemas.” The presentation of the Lord concludes the celebration of the Nativity, and with the offerings of the Virgin Mother and the prophecy of Simeon, the events now point towards Easter. Please join us for Mass according to the regular daily schedule on this special day of Candlemas.

Eucharistic Exposition

The Blessed Sacrament, the very presence of Christ’s body and blood in the Eucharist, is reserved in the tabernacle of the Blessed Sacrament Chapel to the east of the main sanctuary. At all hours the Cathedral is open, people may be found praying there before the Lord “face to face.” Each Saturday afternoon, beginning at 3:30 p.m., the Eucharist is displayed for prayer and adoration in public exposition in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel for a holy hour. Following this holy hour, the Evening Prayer of the Church with Benediction is celebrated.

Additionally, the Blessed Sacrament is displayed for public adoration and prayer on the First Friday of the month. First Friday Adoration begins at approximately 8:30 a.m., following the completion of the 8:00 a.m. Mass, and concludes with Benediction at 11:45 a.m. Our next First Friday Adoration will be held on Friday, February 5.

A Lasting Gift

St. Blaise and the Blessing of Throats

“Suffering and illness have always been among the greatest problems that trouble the human spirit. Christians feel and experience pain as do all other people; yet their faith helps them to grasp more deeply the mystery of suffering and to bear their pain with greater courage...Part of the plan laid out by God’s providence is that we should fight strenuously against all sickness and carefully seek the blessings of good health, so that we may fulfill our role in human society and in the Church” (Introduction to the Blessing of the Sick in the Roman Ritual).

In the United States the annual blessing of throats is a traditional sign of the struggle against illness in the life of the Christian. This blessing is ordinarily given on February 3, the Memorial of St. Blaise. St. Blaise was bishop of Sabaste in Armenia during the fourth century. Very little is known about his life, but according to various accounts, he was a physician before becoming a priest and bishop. Devotion to him spread throughout the whole Church in the Middle Ages because he was reputed to have miraculously cured a little boy who nearly died because of a fish bone in his throat. From the eighth century he has been invoked on behalf of the sick, especially those afflicted with illnesses of the throat.

The Blessing of Throats will be offered following each Mass on Wednesday, February 3.

Annual Statements

Individual contribution statements will be mailed out in the coming week. These statements reflect parish records of each individual parishioner’s financial contributions over the past calendar year, and are intended for tax information. Any parishioner who has recently moved is urged to contact the parish office at 314-373-8202 to update their mailing information.

PLEASE NOTE: Parishioners who made pledges toward the ACA, The Friends of the Cathedral, or through the Roman Catholic Foundation will receive statements directly from the organizations administering those programs. No reference to such pledges or contributions should appear on your parish statement, and corrected statements may be requested from the parish office in such case errors are found.
