WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This coming Wednesday, we enter into the Season of Lent. But what does "entering Lent" mean? It means we enter a season of special commitment in the spiritual battle to oppose the evil present in the world, in each one of us and around us. It means looking evil in the face and being ready to fight its effects and especially its causes, even its primary cause which is Satan. It means not off-loading the problem of evil onto others, onto society or onto God, but rather recognizing one's own responsibility and assuming it with awareness. In this regard, Jesus' invitation to each one of us Christians to take up our "cross" and follow him with humility and trust (cf. Mt 16: 24) is particularly pressing. Although the "cross" may be heavy, it is not synonymous with misfortune, with disgrace or to be avoided on all accounts.

Masses on Ash Wednesday will be at 7:00 am, 8:00 am, 12:05 pm and 5:30 pm. Make plans during this Lenten Season to join your fellow parishioners for the Stations of the Cross on the Friday's of Lent at 7:00 pm. Perhaps God is calling you to attend daily Mass at 7:00 am, 8:00 am or 12:05 pm. Don't forget that even if you only 5 minutes, stop by and pray with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel.

To help you enter more fully into the Lenten Season, we are providing to our parishioners The Magnificat Lenten Companion, which is designed in a convenient, easy-to-use format with inspiring daily reflections, prayers, and faith-filled essays. By taking a few moments each day to meditate on the daily reflections and short prayers that follow, you will accompany Jesus through his Passion and Death, emerging on Easter Sunday to the overflowing joy of His Resurrection. You will find these companions located at the main entrance to the Basilica.

Besides prayer and fasting, our refocusing efforts for a good Lent calls us to go outside ourselves. That means using our time, talent and treasure for others. While "almsgiving" is the traditional term used for this component of Lent, what is behind this is our concerns for our brothers and sisters, especially those who are in need and less fortunate than we are.

Recently, I came across this quote: "A comfort zone is a beautiful place, but nothing ever grows there." I think that's an appropriate description for a good Lent - to get out of our comfort zone and grow closer to the Lord. May this Lent be that special time for us.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Take time to pause and reset for new habits

Lent presents the challenge and opportunity to witness to the Gospel truth that we are all sinners in need of a savior

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Have you ever seen a commercial or a movie where they hit the “pause” button — then all the people and action freeze, while one character moves about in the frozen frame?

Lent and Easter are like that.

This week we begin the 7th week of Ordinary Time. Then Lent starts, and the Church pushes the “pause” button. Forty days of Lent are followed by 50 days of Easter. Then, after 90 days, the Church pushes “play” again, and we pick up with the 8th week of Ordinary Time.

The Church pushes the “pause” button to give us time to establish some new habits. Contemporary psychologists say that it takes roughly 90 days to build a new habit. So, here’s our chance! If you could push “pause,” take 90 days to acquire a new habit and then reenter your life with that habit in place, what would it be? Make that your Lenten plan!

Ashes?

Every year, when Lent starts, some people are puzzled — and not without reason. In the Gospel for Ash

Wednesday, Jesus tells us not to let our prayer, fasting and almsgiving be known ... so we put ashes on our foreheads, to let everyone know we’re entering a time of prayer, fasting and almsgiving?

When we understand the passage properly, there’s no contradiction. Every moral action is evaluated according to its object, intention and circumstance.

The same is true of every spiritual action. What Jesus is critiquing on Ash Wednesday is people’s intention: They’re doing good things, but they’re doing them “to win the praise of others.” Is Jesus really saying, “Don’t give public witness to your faith?”

ARCHBISHOP

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

Of course not! He told us to let our light shine before others. What He’s saying is: when you carry out good spiritual actions make sure your intentions are in the right place as well.

So, what’s our intention when we wear ashes in public? We’re not doing it “to win the praise of others.”

Our intention is to give witness to the Gospel truth that we’re sinners in need of a savior. When we do that we pose a question and issue an invitation: “Are you a sinner in need of a savior, too? Join us!”

Repent

Affirmation is a natural developmental need, but at some point in our lives, everyone needs to be challenged, too.

A perfect example of this is the call of Matthew (Levi), which we read as Lent begins. Matthew is a tax collector — the prototype of a sinner! Jesus didn’t simply affirm him: “Matthew, I know you’re trying as hard as you can. I accept you just as you are.” No, Jesus called him: “Matthew, I want more for you. But it’s going to require more from you. Will you follow me?”

It’s ennobling to know that someone sees more in us and wants more for us. It’s dignifying to be invited to rise to the challenge. But, then, the decision is ours: Will we walk into the challenge, or walk away from it?

Matthew followed Jesus. The fruit of his decision was to give hope to other sinners — who then joined Matthew and Jesus for dinner!

Lent presents that same challenge and opportunity to each of us. How will we respond?

Men of the Cathedral February Adoration

Lent begins on Wednesday, February 22nd. as we each begin our Lenten Journey, we may wish to consider spending some quality time with Our Lord.

The MEN OF THE CATHEDRAL cordially invite all men and women (parishioners and visitors) to join them for the February Adoration scheduled on February 28th at 6:00 p.m.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is a joy beyond worlds, as we can come close to Our Lord in a very special way. That joy and fulfillment is greatly enhanced when you share the experience of Adoration with others. We are blessed to have two Adorations during this Lenten Season.

Confessions will be heard during Adoration.

Please plan to attend and invite your friends and family. As it is a tremendous way to come closer to Christ!

Following Adoration, all men are invited in Boland Hall for fellowship and dinner. An offering of $20 is suggested. Please RSVP by Monday, February 27th to Michael Weisbrod at michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org to reserve your dinner spot!

Women of the Cathedral

Women of the Cathedral– March 4, 2023

Dear Ladies of the Cathedral Parish,

Come grow in faith and fellowship with other ladies in the parish at the monthly gatherings of the Women of the Cathedral. It's been a delight to have new ladies join each time.

We will gather next on Saturday, March 4, 2023.

We will begin with 8 a.m. Mass in the Cathedral, and then move over to Boland Hall for a light breakfast. After brief introductions and social time, an informative program is led by Msgr. Mikesch, our spiritual director, with closing prayer at 10 a.m. A popular highlight is "Ask Msgr. Mikesch Time."

At our last gathering the ladies shared their own stories of being light to others often with great personal sacrifice. Some also shared when an unknown person unexpectedly became alight uplifting them from grief and sorrow.

To learn more, and RSVP for breakfast, please contact Barbara Murray at 314-974-6900 or email murraybj@swbell.net by March 1, 2023. Please send your questions for "Ask Msgr. Time" when you RSVP.

Pilgrimage to the Holy Land

My friend, Father Keller and I will lead a pilgrimage to the Holy Land from November 7 - 17, 2023. Father Keller is the pastor of Assumption Parish in South County and over the years we have led many pilgrimages together and we hope that you can join us for this one.

This pilgrimage is intended for “First-Time Pilgrims” to the Holy Land. We will travel throughout Israel and Palestine visiting the places that are linked to the life of Jesus. The trip is a “pilgrimage” because it will be more than just tour-guides and ancient ruins, we will take time for daily Mass and have time for prayer and reflection at the locations where Christ Himself lived, preached, healed, and redeemed.

We will visit the great churches commemorating the Annunciation in Nazareth and the Nativity in Bethlehem. We will see Capharnaum, Cana, Caesarea Philippi, Jericho, Mount Beatitude, Bethany, the Sea of Galilee, Mount Tabor, the Jordan River, and other places associated with public ministry of Christ. We will visit Mount Carmel, a place associated with both the Blessed Mother and the Prophet Elijah. In Jerusalem we will see the site of the lost Jewish Temple and we will visit the Garden of Gethsemane, Calvary and the Empty Tomb within the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, the place of the Ascension, and the site of Mary’s Assumption into heaven. We hope the Bible will come alive after you have been to the Holy Land.

The Gospel of the Lord

Jesus said to his disciples: "You have heard it said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, offer no resistance to one who is evil. When someone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other one as well. If anyone wants to go to law with you over your tunic, hand over your cloak as well. Should anyone press you into service for one mile, go for two miles. Give to the one who asks of you, and do not turn your back on one who wants to borrow. "You have heard it said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But is a to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your heavenly Father, for he makes his sun rise on the bad and the good, and causes rain to fall on the just and the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what recompense will you have? Do not the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet your brothers only, what is unusual about that? Do not the pagans do the same? So be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect."

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“We often assume parenthood happens easily after ‘I do,’ but for many married couples, it does not. For some, the joy of conception never happens. Others suffer repeated miscarriages. Still others experience secondary infertility... If you experience difficulty bringing a child into your family, know that you are not alone. God is with you, and his Church desires to walk with you... God has a beautiful plan for your life as a married couple.”

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you..." MATTHEW 5:44

Love your enemies, easier said than done. But, remember, the foundation of stewardship is prayer. When we are in close communication with God, it opens our heart and it turns our attention away from "me" and moves it towards God and others. It changes my heart and actions, allowing for a little more empathy for "my enemy." When we pray for others, even our enemies, it may soften their hearts as well.
