Welcome to Our Visitors

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

Dear Parishioners,

Archbishop Rozanski has accepted Pope Francis' invitation to all Catholic bishops and priests around the world to join him in the Act of Consecration of Russia and the Ukraine to the Immaculate Heart of Mary in praying for peace.

On Friday, March 25, Solemnity of the Annunciation, Our Holy Father led the Act of Consecration from St. Peter's Basilica. The Pope also sent a special emissary to Portugal to represent him and lead the consecration in Fatima. At the same time at the Cathedral Basilica, and in churches throughout the Archdiocese, the Act of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary took place on Friday. You will find the text of the consecration located on our website at cathedralsltl.org/consecration.

The consecration reminds us to pray for peace in Russia and the Ukraine, where some tragic events have unfolded over the past several weeks. This is also a good opportunity to be reminded of Our Lady's request at Fatima to do penance, pray the Rosary, and make the Five First Saturdays.

“I promise to assist at the hour of death with the graces necessary for salvation all those who, in order to make reparation to me, on the First Saturday of five successive months, go to Confession, receive Holy Communion, say five decades of the Rosary, and keep me company for a quarter of an hour, meditating on the fifteen mysteries of the Rosary” (apparition to Sr. Lucia - December,1925).

The lighting upgrade to the central dome of the Cathedral is now in full motion. The crane arrived on Wednesday and lifted necessary materials to the roof of the Cathedral. However, the men then had to carry these items up another seven stories to the top of the dome.

The hope is that by Friday, April 1, the new lights will be functioning and that will significantly improve light in the central nave. I ask for your prayers for the safety of the workers and successful completion.

Msgr. Breier
ARCHBISHOP’S COLUMN

Lent provides abundant grounds for hope and realism

This week, let’s focus deeply on Jesus and offer our lives as medicine for the world

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

What medicine does the world most need these days, psychologically and spiritually, and how can we become that medicine?

This week, the prophet Ezekiel gives us a beautiful vision of a river that flows from God’s Temple in heaven — first as a trickle, then progressively ankle-deep, knee-deep, waist-deep and finally as a full-bodied river that one can only cross by swimming. The river waters trees that bear fruit every month: “Their fruit shall serve for food, and their leaves for medicine.” Ezekiel is giving both a vision of heaven and a challenge for the people of Israel — to become those living, healing trees, drawing their strength from God. This week, he gives the same challenge to us.

This week, the Gospel of John recounts Jesus’ third sign, when He heals a man who had been ill for 38 years. The man is waiting for the healing water at the pool of Bethesda to be stirred up. But every time it is, someone else gets into it before him. Jesus, however, heals the man instantly. John’s meaning is clear: Jesus Himself is the living, healing water of God. And, as Jesus tells us, that living water can flow in us if we follow Him.

The readings for the week, then, contain a pledge and a call: we can become a healing balm for the world. I think one of the ways we can do so is to foster a combination of realism and hope.

We need to foster realism because sin is sin, and sin is at work in the world and in every human being. But realism without hope turns into cynicism, and cynicism is not the medicine the world needs right now! So, we need to foster hope as well.

Christian hope, however, is different from secular optimism. Secular optimism is rooted in the idea that things will always get better because “progress” is the law of history. When it comes to technology, that’s certainly true — technology makes constant progress! But when it comes to morality, the idea is demonstrably false. Human morality is a constant struggle. Sin doesn’t decrease across history.

The coming weeks of Lent walk us more intensely into the journey of Jesus. That journey provides abundant grounds for both hope and realism. We can be hopeful, because we know that Jesus will be victorious in the end! But we need to be realistic, too, because we know the path to victory goes through the Cross.

When we put our faith in “progress,” we tend toward optimism that’s unrealistic, or cynicism that lacks hope. Neither is the medicine the world needs right now. When we put our faith in Jesus, we can be both realistic and hopeful. That’s medicine the world needs!

As our Lenten journey deepens, and events in the world grow darker, let’s focus deeply on Jesus this coming week. If we do so, I believe we can meet Ezekiel’s challenge. We can become living trees, drawing our strength from God, combining realism and hope, and offering our lives as medicine to the world.

Easter
Memorial Flowers

The beautiful Easter lilies and spring flowers that adorn our church are a special part of the celebration of Easter at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis. We invite parishioners to share in the experience through a memorial or thanksgiving gift - to remember loved ones, honor friends, and offer thanksgiving to God for prayers answered and blessings received. The suggested donation is $10.00 per remembrance. The names of all those being remembered will be printed in the parish bulletin on Easter Sunday and the week following Easter.

Please indicate in whose memory, or in whose honor, you wish the flowers to be dedicated. Completed forms and payment may be placed in an envelope and dropped into the weekend offertory baskets, OR mailed to: Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis, c/o Memorial Lilies, 4431 Lindell Blvd, Saint Louis, MO, 63108.

A Lenten Retreat with Sacred Art
Sacred art is meant to assist in the raising of the mind and heart to God. As Pope Benedict XVI wrote, “Images of beauty, in which the mystery of the invisible God becomes visible, are an essential part of Christian worship... The image of Christ and the images of the saints are not photographs. Their whole point is to lead us beyond what can be apprehended at the merely material level, to awaken new senses in us, and to teach us a new kind of seeing, which perceives the Invisible in the visible.” (The Spirit of the Liturgy).

To assist in our Lenten journey, a different piece of sacred art will be displayed each week. This week we feature The Apotheosis of John Paul the Great (on the next page) located this week in the All Souls chapel.

Updated hours for Fr. Marco
Fr. Marco offers spiritual discussion and confession Tuesday through Friday from 10am—noon and 2pm—4pm located in the former gift shop. Walk-ins are welcome and no appointment is necessary.

The Disciple Maker Index
You can find the survey online at our website at www.cathedralsltl.org/survey. If you prefer a paper copy, please call the rectory, 314-373-8202, and we will mail one to you. The survey will be available until April 4th.

Eyeglass Drive
"The Respectacle Project,” an eyeglass recycling program, facilitates the redistribution of quality used eyeglasses to those in need both locally and abroad. Donations are typically accepted on the first Sunday of every month. Our next eyeglass drive will be held on Sunday, April 3rd.

For the Poor
On the first Sunday of every month, the Cathedral Parish collects foodstuffs and canned goods (non-perishable items only, please!) for delivery to food pantries in the area. Our next parish food drive will be held on Sunday, April 3rd.

A Lenten Retreat with Sacred Art
Week 4: The Apotheosis of John Paul the Great
(located in the All Souls chapel)

This painting is by George and Polly Capps: St. Louis natives and founders of Goretti Fine Arts LLC. “George and Polly’s monumental oil painting celebrates the role played by the giant intellect, personal courage, and charismatic character of Pope St. John Paul II in combating the twentieth century’s twin totalitarian ideologies of Nazi Socialism and Soviet Communism. A visual tour-de-force as well as a sophisticated Christian allegory, The Apotheosis of John Paul the Great pays fitting tribute to the profound holiness and enduring accomplishments of one of the greatest saints of our time.” (taken from www.gorettifineart.com)

We feature this week’s painting in our All Souls chapel which is full of images meant to remind us of our mortality: the fact that each of us will face a day and an hour which will prove to be our last. We are made only to exist on this earth for only a time. We surround ourselves with these images not to promote fear or despair, but to remind ourselves of two things. On the one hand, we remember that our time on earth is limited and so we are obliged to use it well in loving God and neighbor. On the other hand, we remember that even this most fearful enemy of our nature – death itself – has been conquered by the God who loves us. On the Cross, Jesus enters right into the very heart of death itself and emerges victorious. Because of His Resurrection, death need not have the final say over us and we, therefore, need not fear it ever again.

The painting depicts that moment of transition from earthly existence to heavenly existence experienced by all the saints, and which we too hope will be ours when our time on this earth comes to an end. Pope St. John Paul II is depicted here being welcomed into heaven by a number of the saints he canonized during his papacy, just as we hope to be welcomed there by those who helped us on our way to heaven, and who helped by our Christian charity. He is also depicted victorious over the evils which he, by the grace of God, fought so vigorously to vanquish during the course of his earthly life. Like him, part of our growth in holiness involves our cooperating with the grace of God to overcome those evils which are contrary to God’s goodness: both those which are present in the world around us and especially those which are present within our own hearts.

As you stand in this chapel, as you look upon the Cross, let yourself be reminded of the fact of your own mortality, but be not afraid. By virtue of what we will celebrate in a few short weeks at Easter, there is no enemy which we cannot overcome with the help of God’s grace. Not even death itself. “Death has been swallowed up in victory. Where, O death, is your victory? Where, o death, is your sting?” (1 Corinthians 15: 53-57)

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“There is an everyday heroism, made up of gestures of sharing, big or small, which build up an authentic culture of life... Part of this daily heroism is also the silent but effective and eloquent witness of all those ‘brave mothers who devote themselves to their own family without reserve, who suffer in giving birth to their children and who are ready to make any effort, to face any sacrifice, in order to pass on to them the best of themselves’... We thank you, heroic mothers, for your invincible love! We thank you for your intrepid trust in God and in his love. We thank you for the sacrifice of your life”

(The Gospel of Life 86).

Daily Readings for the Week...

The readings are included each week so that the parishioners who are unable to join us for daily Mass will be able to consider and pray them in union with the whole Church.

Eucharistic Exposition

The Blessed Sacrament, the very presence of Christ’s body and blood in the Eucharist, is reserved in the tabernacle of the Blessed Sacrament Chapel to the east of the main sanctuary. At all hours the Cathedral is open, people may be found praying there before the Lord "face to face." Each Saturday afternoon, beginning at 3:30 p.m., the Eucharist is displayed for prayer and adoration in public exposition in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel for a holy hour. Following this holy hour, the Evening Prayer of the Church with Benediction is celebrated.

Additionally, the Blessed Sacrament is displayed for public adoration and prayer on the First Friday of the month. First Friday Adoration begins at approximately 8:30 a.m., following the completion of the 8:00 a.m. Mass, and concludes with Benediction at 11:45 a.m. Our next First Friday Adoration will be held Friday, April 1st.

40 Days for Life

The Cathedral Basilica has adopted Sunday, April 10, as its day for the spring 40 Days for Life campaign and needs prayer vigil volunteers. Volunteers simply pray quietly during a one-hour shift on the sidewalk outside of Planned Parenthood on Forest Park Avenue. Volunteers can sign up for any hour between 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. at http://www.coalitionlife.com/vigil-calendar-stl/ or by writing to bryankirchoff@att.net with the desired time.
Anima Christi Young Adults

All young adults interested in growing the fellowship of our young adult community are invited to the next young adult gathering scheduled for Thursday, March 31st. We begin with Adoration and confessions in the church at 6:30 pm (enter through the west door by the playground), followed by dinner in Boland Hall at 7:30 p.m. Please join us, in full or in part, to deepen your relationship with Christ and with one another. For additional information, please e-mail the group at AnimaChristiStL@gmail.com.

Women of the Cathedral

The next gathering of the Women of the Cathedral for Mass, breakfast and fellowship will be Saturday, April 2, 2022. We will start with 8am Mass together in the Cathedral and then go to Boland Hall for a light breakfast until 10am. We welcome all parish women to come grow in faith and fellowship together. Please RSVP to Barbara Murray by text or phone (314-974-6900) by March 30th if you plan to come for breakfast.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

“...He said to the gardener, ‘For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none.’” (Luke 13:7)

We can all be like the barren fig tree at times. Do you cling to what you have or do you generously share with others? How will you respond when God asks you what you have done with all the gifts he has given you? Remember, not only are we called to be generous, we are called to develop and nurture our gifts, and return them with increase. Remember, we are called to be generous with all of gifts; especially the one that means the most to you.
