WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter.

Small public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment, as is access to the Cathedral Gift Shop. Large public tours are not currently available, due to the difficulty of being able to adequately social distance larger groups.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

A word of welcome on this Easter Sunday to all our visitors to the Cathedral Basilica Parish. I hope you find this to be a welcoming community and feel at home. You are always welcome.

From ancient times, the liturgy of Easter day has begun with the words: Resurrexi et adhuc tecum sum – I arose, and am still with you. The liturgy sees these as the first words spoken by the Son to the Father after His resurrection, after His return from the night of death into the world of the living.

These words are taken from Psalm 138 where, originally, they had a different meaning. Psalm 138 is a song of wonder at God's omnipotence and omnipresence, a hymn of trust in the God who never allows us to fall from his hands. The Psalmist imagines himself journeying to the farthest reaches of the cosmos – and what happens to him? "If I ascend to heaven, You are there! If I make my bed in Sheol, You are there! If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there Your hand shall lead me, and Your right hand shall hold me. If I say, 'Let only darkness cover me' ..., even the darkness is not dark to You...; for darkness is as light with You." (Ps 138:8-12)

On Easter day, the Church tells us that Jesus Christ made that journey to the ends of the universe for our sake. In the Letter to the Ephesians we read that He descended to the depths of the earth, and that the One who descended is also the One who has risen far above the heavens, that He might fill all things (cf. 4:9ff.). The vision of the Psalm thus became reality.

But these words of the Risen Christ to the Father have also become words which the Lord speaks to us: "I arose and now I am still with you," He says to each of us. "My hand upholds you. Wherever you may fall, you will always fall into My hands. I am present even at the door of death. Where no one can accompany you further, and where you can bring nothing, even there I am waiting for you, and for you I will change darkness into light."

Many thanks to everyone who has made our Easter celebrations here at the Cathedral so beautiful, from our choirs to those who decorated church. I am so grateful to you for sharing your time and your talents with our parish.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

When we enter into relationship with God, time works differently

The Church's calendar and the readings for Easter week help us enter into 'the today of the Lord'

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

What's your experience of time?

In this week after Easter, the Church's calendar and readings are trying to teach us a different sense of time. Every day is celebrated as Easter, and we hear about an appearance of the Risen Lord. We're not moving through a sequence and on to the next thing. We're taking all week to unpack this one day, as though time were working differently.

And that's precisely the point: Time does work differently, and has acquired a new meaning, in light of the resurrection of Jesus.

This is one of the intriguing themes of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, especially in its section on prayer. The Catechism speaks of "the today of the Lord." In doing so, it's articulating the fact that God is beyond time, a truth articulated in 2 Peter 3:8 this way: "With the Lord one day is like a thousand years and a thousand years like one day." When we enter into relationship with God, time works differently.

We have intimations of that in our experience when time moves quickly or slowly, when time seems empty or full. Clock time doesn't change; our experience of time does. The meaning of that experience is revealed in the resurrection: we are called to live in time in a way that rises above time.

In the Incarnation, the infinite God entered into the finite world and transformed it. Similarly, in the Resurrection, God's eternity breaks into the temporal universe and transforms it. The Church's calendar and the readings for Easter week are meant to be a school for entering into that new sense of time — for entering into "the today of the Lord."

What are we meant to do with this new sense of time? Fortunately, the readings give guidance on that.

Every day this week, in almost every reading, the pattern is the same: A person encounters the risen Lord and then gives witness to what they have seen.

Regarding the encounters, it's interesting to note that some people recognize the risen Jesus right away, while others experience Him before they recognize Him. That mirrors our own experience. Sometimes we know we're encountering Jesus. Sometimes we don't know we've encountered Him until we reflect on it afterward. We need some help opening our eyes! This week we're meant to slow down, return to the place of encounter and savor the presence of Jesus.

When it comes to bearing witness, we have some work to do. St. Peter says: "It is impossible for us not to speak about what we have seen and heard." Sometimes it seems like this is the point at which Catholic practice simply contradicts Scripture. We try to find every excuse not to speak about what we have seen and heard!

The news media doesn't hesitate to speak about its perspectives. They know it matters what people think, because how people think shapes how they act.

The chief priests knew this as well. That's why they told the guards, "Tell people that His disciples stole the body of Jesus while we slept — that's why the tomb is empty." It matters what story gets told. How the facts are interpreted and understood shapes how people live.

We need to tell our story. We need to get in the game, to speak about what we have heard and seen. It's not just a fact of human nature that this matters, it's the command of Jesus: "You are witnesses of these things. Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel." That's how we're meant to use our new sense of time.

Christ is Risen. He is risen, indeed. Happy Easter!

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“There is an everyday heroism, made up of gestures of sharing, big or small, which build up an authentic culture of life... Part of this daily heroism is also the silent but effective and eloquent witness of all those ‘brave mothers who devote themselves to their own family without reserve, who suffer in giving birth to their children and who are ready to make any effort, to face any sacrifice, in order to pass on to them the best of themselves’... We thank you, heroic mothers, for your invincible love! We thank you for your intrepid trust in God and in his love. We thank you for the sacrifice of your life”

Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis

Blessings and Congratulations! Please join the clergy of the Cathedral Basilica in congratulating all those who became fully initiated into the Catholic Church during the Cathedral's Easter Vigil, either by baptism or by profession of faith:

Bojan Balaban, Andrea Burrows, Emma Burry,
Lindsey Chel, Joel Davis, Rosa Davis,
Liam Dillon, Peter Goldberg,
Winnie Hua, Adam Jung, Miles Kruzich,
Rhiannon Lemond, Chigozie Obi, Sarah Pratt,
Jamison Rucker, Greg Standeford,
Lauren Standeford, and Hayden Stephan.

Our prayers follow them all as they continue to walk with the Lord in this life-long journey of faith.

Resurrection and the Real Presence

Surrexit Dominus Vere, Alleluia! The Lord is truly risen! Share this great news. Not only has the Lord risen, but He also remains present to us in every Catholic church throughout the world. As Pope Paul VI taught, "The Catholic Church has always displayed and still displays this latria that ought to be paid to the Sacrament of the Eucharist, both during Mass and outside of it, by taking the greatest possible care of consecrated Hosts, by exposing them to the solemn veneration of the faithful, and by carrying them about in processions to the joy of great numbers of the people" (Mysterium Fidei 56). We derive great strength from the Risen Christ who is truly present in the Eucharist each Sunday. How privileged we are to receive His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity and also to adore Him in the Blessed Sacrament. Each tabernacle is a throne for the Risen King. We must take advantage of the opportunity to adore our Lord and to pray in His powerful presence. He has given us new life and has raised us to the status of adopted sons and daughters. Embrace this new life!

St. Patrick Casserole Program

Casseroles and other offerings collected by volunteers of the St. Patrick Casserole Program provides one week of dinners for the Women's Shelter, and one night of dinners for the Men's Alumni Club.

Cathedral casserole organizers will host our next "touchless" drop-off in the parish parking lot on Thursday, April 8, from 1:00 –2:00 p.m. Please contact Skip or Nicki Batchelor at 916-834-4843 for additional information.

Infant Baptism

According to the mind of the Church, parents are obliged to see that infants are baptized within the first weeks after birth. As soon as possible after the birth, or even before it, parents should request the sacrament for their child and are to be properly instructed in preparation for it. Godparents are also encouraged to attend baptismal preparation before the child is born. If you are a registered parishioner who is or is about to become a parent or godparent, contact Laura Voegelie at 314-373-8202 to schedule a baptism or to register for baptismal preparation class.

Eucharistic Exposition

The Blessed Sacrament, the very presence of Christ's body and blood in the Eucharist, is reserved in the tabernacle of the Blessed Sacrament Chapel to the east of the main sanctuary. At all hours the Cathedral is open, people may be found praying there before the Lord "face to face." Each Saturday afternoon, beginning at 3:30 p.m., the Eucharist is displayed for prayer and adoration in public exposition in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel for a holy hour. Following this holy hour, the Evening Prayer of the Church with Benediction is celebrated.

Additionally, the Blessed Sacrament is displayed for public adoration and prayer on the First Friday of the month. First Friday Adoration begins at approximately 8:30 a.m., following the completion of the 8:00 a.m. Mass, and concludes with Benediction at 11:45 a.m.

Please note: We will not be celebrating First Friday in April as it coincided with Good Friday. Our next First Friday Adoration will be held Friday, May 7.

STEWARDSHIP ALIVE!

Sacrament of Baptism

Congratulations to our recently baptized parishioner, Michael Joseph, son of Kevin & Elizabeth, who was baptized in Christ on March 7 here at the Cathedral Basilica.

May the blessing of the Lord be always upon Michael, and may God watch over & cherish all children whom God has blessed with the grace of Baptism.

For the Poor

Today, and on the first Sunday of every month, the Cathedral Parish collects foodstuffs and canned goods for delivery to local food pantries. Please place donations in the baskets near the sanctuary at the side aisles. Thank you for your generosity!

Eyeglass Drive

Today, and on the first Sunday of every month, "The Respectacle Project", an eyeglass recycling program, is accepting donations of quality used eyeglasses. Please place donations in the baskets near the sanctuary at the side aisles. Thank you!

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"Think of what is above, not of what is on earth." - Col 3:2

On this day we thank God for His Son, Jesus, who died, rose and opened the gates of heaven for us. We celebrate and sing "Alleluia." Let's try to keep the joy of this Easter season in our hearts throughout the year! Pray daily and listen for how God is calling each of us to joyfully use our gifts to fulfill His salvation plan.

Anima Christi Young Adults

All young adults interested in growing the fellowship of our young adult community are invited to the next young adult gathering scheduled for Thursday, April 8. We begin with Adoration and confessions in the church at 6:30 pm (enter through the west door by the playground), followed by dinner in Boland Hall at 7:30 p.m. Please join us, in full or in part, to deepen your relationship with Christ and with one another. For more information, please e-mail AnimaChristiStL@gmail.com.
