FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

A word of welcome on this Easter Sunday to all our visitors to the Cathedral Basilica Parish. I hope you find this to be a welcoming community and feel at home.

From ancient times, the liturgy of Easter day has begun with the words: Resurrexi et adhuc tecum sum – I arose, and am still with you. The liturgy sees these as the first words spoken by the Son to the Father after His resurrection, after His return from the night of death into the world of the living.

These words are taken from Psalm 138 where, originally, they had a different meaning. Psalm 138 is a song of wonder at God's omnipotence and omnipresence, a hymn of trust in the God who never allows us to fall from his hands. The Psalmist imagines himself journeying to the farthest reaches of the cosmos – and what happens to him? "If I ascend to heaven, You are there! If I make my bed in Sheol, You are there! If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there Your hand shall lead me, and Your right hand shall hold me. If I say, 'Let only darkness cover me'..., even the darkness is not dark to You...; for darkness is as light with You." (Ps 138:8-12)

On Easter day, the Church tells us that Jesus Christ made that journey to the ends of the universe for our sake. In the Letter to the Ephesians we read that He descended to the depths of the earth, and that the One who descended is also the One who has risen far above the heavens, that He might fill all things (cf. 4:9ff.). The vision of the Psalm thus became reality.

But these words of the Risen Christ to the Father have also become words which the Lord speaks to us: "I arose and now I am still with you," He says to each of us. "My hand upholds you. Wherever you may fall, you will always fall into My hands. I am present even at the door of death. Where no one can accompany you further, and where you can bring nothing, even there I am waiting for you, and for you I will change darkness into light."

Many thanks to everyone who has made our Easter celebrations here at the Cathedral so beautiful, from our choirs to those who decorated church. I am so grateful to you for sharing your time and your talents with our parish.

A Lenten Retreat with Sacred Art
Week 7: Resurrection
 (Located in the All Saint Chapel)

They said to them, “Why do you seek the living One among the dead? He is not here, but He has been raised. Remember what He said to you while He was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners and be crucified, and rise on the third day.” And they remembered His words. Then they returned from the tomb and announced all these things to the eleven and to all the others. (Luke 24: 5-9)

As Jesus emerges from the tomb; emerges from the realm of the dead into the land of the living, let the cry emerge from our hearts: “Surrexit Dominus vere! The Lord is truly risen!” Beginning with our celebration of the Easter Vigil, where we recapitulate the entirety salvation history, we transition from our season of fasting into a season of feasting and rejoicing. At the nexus of this transition is our celebration of the historical fact of Jesus Christ’s bodily resurrection from the dead, depicted in this painting by local artist, Evelyn Astegno.

The historicity of this event is important for us to continually reaffirm. This is not just a myth or a fairy tale that we tell ourselves. As St. Paul tells the Church in Corinth, Jesus Christ rose from the dead after three days and He appeared to, spoke with, ate with His Apostles and disciples, and “After that He appeared to more than five hundred brothers at once, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep.” (1 Corinthians 15: 6). Seeing the risen Jesus –seeing the One who days ago was dead and had been buried – was the spark that ignited His followers to charge throughout the Roman empire and beyond as the beginnings of the Church which He Himself established and entrusted with the mission of making Him, and the salvation offered in Him, known to the ends of the earth. So convinced were they by what they had seen –that He had truly risen from the dead – that many of these early disciples were willing to be put to death rather than deny it. As we enter into this holy season, we have the opportunity to reaffirm our own conviction of this truth: to reaffirm our faith that Jesus’ claim to divinity is vindicated precisely in His rising from the dead and that in doing so He furthermore paves the way for our own resurrection. In making good on His promise that on the third day He would rise, Jesus gives us reason to trust in His promise that He will raise us up with Him, and that death will have the final say over us no more than it did Him.

“Why do you seek the living One among the dead?” This is the question the angels pose to the women who were the first to arrive at the empty tomb. We might just propose that question to ourselves as well. Jesus Christ is the “living One:” alive, here and now, in our life, today. Where do we let our past – our past sins and mistakes, our past hurts, fears, and traumas –prevent us from perceiving Him? It is one of the evil one’s favorite tricks to try to get us so locked in on our past that we prevent ourselves from seeing what the “living One” is trying to do in our lives now, today. When we brood over past injuries and sins, perhaps Jesus is asking us as well, “Why are you looking for me back there? What’s done is done, and you won’t find me there, among the dead. I am here with you right now, today, calling you forward.” Beating ourselves up with our past; thinking that if we shame ourselves enough, we will finally be able to move forward is like seeking the living One among the dead. “He is not here.” As we pass once again from death to life with Jesus in this holy season, perhaps consider where the Lord is calling you to rise with Him: to rise from what has gone before and has been holding you down, and to look ahead to where He is inviting you to new life.

Surrexit Dominus vere!

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

"Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, 'God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end' (Spe salvi 31)." Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. "Colossians 3:2

Do you put God first in all things? Possessions, money, power, ego can easily become gods to many of us. Do a quick check of what is important to you. Is God at the very top of the list? If not, your priorities need to be re-adjusted. Don't let earthly things become a god before God. This is also the first commandment – I am the Lord your God, you shall not have any strange gods before me.
