WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter.

Small public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment, as is access to the Cathedral Gift Shop. Large public tours are not currently available, due to the difficulty of being able to adequately social distance larger groups.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

After the solemn celebrations of Easter, we are still imbued with spiritual joy, as we carry in our hearts that Easter joy. My deep thanks to everyone who helped to make these liturgies so beautiful this past week. Most importantly I would like to extend a word of thanks to the staff of the Cathedral for their hard work and to the volunteers who helped in many ways. In addition, there are many others who gave so much of their time including our ushers, servers, eucharistic ministers, and those who helped to clean our church, arrange flowers, and work with those in our RCIA program.

We welcomed parishioners and visitors to the Cathedral Basilica in numbers we have not seen since before the pandemic began. It was so wonderful to see the Cathedral full with people coming to worship together on Easter.

Many of you should have received a letter from me regarding the Annual Catholic Appeal, which is one way we proclaim our Faith. Whether it's feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, or providing a family the resources to help fund a Catholic education for their children, your Faith has helped the Church grow stronger, lighting up the world with faith, hope, and love. Through the Appeal, we join together and make possible the Church's mission of evangelization, education and many ministries of charity. For now, I ask you to prayerfully consider your gift to this effort of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis.

What the Gospel says to us today on the 2nd Sunday of Easter is very important: namely, that Jesus, in his two appearances to the Apostles gathered in the Upper Room, repeats several times the greeting: "Peace be with you." The traditional greeting used by people at the time of Jesus with which people would greet one another was shalom, peace. This greeting becomes something new: it becomes the gift of the peace that Jesus alone can give because it is the fruit of his radical victory over evil. The "peace" that Jesus gives to his friends is the fruit of the love of God which led him to die on the cross, to pour out all his blood, as a meek and humble lamb "full of grace and truth."

For this reason Saint John Paul II chose to call this Sunday after Easter, Divine Mercy, with a very specific image: that of Jesus' pierced side from which blood and water flowed, according to the account of an eyewitness, the Apostle John. However Jesus is now risen and the paschal Sacraments of Baptism and the Eucharist flow from him, who is alive: those who receive them with faith receive the gift of eternal life.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

A commitment to refuse to compromise on fundamental matters of faith

Denying the full human dignity of people has far-reaching consequences

ARCHBISHOP

SERVE THE LORD WITH GLADNESS

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We celebrate a little known figure this week: Pope St. Martin I (April 13). He settled an important debate in the Church and, if we pay attention, it can teach us a timely lesson.

There were some, at the time, who claimed that Christ had only one will: His human will was either obliterated, or absorbed into the divine will in such a way that it ceased to exist as a distinct reality.

In the year 649, Pope Martin convened a council to clarify that if Christ was both fully human and fully divine (which had already been settled), then He had to have both a human and a divine will. Of course, the human will would always submit perfectly to the divine will. But we see, in the agony in the garden, that the submission wasn't always easy. And if Christ was to redeem us, then He had to be like us in all things but sin — including those moments when it wasn't easy. The teaching of this smaller council in 649 was confirmed in 681 by the 6th Ecumenical Council, known as Constantinople III (see Catechism of the Catholic Church 475).

Think, for a moment, of the consequences of this debate! When it comes to our understanding of the Bible, it's the difference between the Holy Spirit inspiring Matthew, Mark, Luke and John to bring their distinctive gifts to the writing of the Gospels, as opposed to the Holy Spirit using them the way a puppet master does. When it comes to our understanding of vocation or discernment, it's the difference between us cooperating with God in our distinct calling, as opposed to God eliminating our free will and turning us into robots. When it comes to our understanding of salvation, it's the difference between our individual identity being obliterated, just like the human will in Christ, as opposed to our distinctive identity being preserved and brought into an eternal union with God.

Pope Martin stood firm against the “one will” error. He was exiled for it, and died in exile. But thanks be to God that he stood firm. The truth of Christ's two wills had far reaching consequences.

There's a way in which we can see that same lesson, in our own day, in the concept of human dignity. Missourians know — and to our shame — what happened when the human dignity of Dred and Harriett Scott was denied. We know the importance of upholding the human dignity of the unborn, and what happens when that's denied. We, in the archdiocese, are working as hard as anyone to show the connection between upholding human dignity and breaking down racism. Getting that one concept right or wrong has far reaching consequences.

Doctrines — ideas — have practical consequences. They're not incidental “add-ons” that we can set aside without risk. When it comes to fundamental matters of faith and morals, to make a three-fifths compromise with the truth is to be entirely wrong — wrong in a way that undermines all of society, wrong in a way that must eventually be set right. Pope St. Martin teaches us that lesson. History teaches us that lesson. This week, let's reflect on that lesson, and commit to not compromising on fundamental matters of the faith!

Pro-Life Mass

Remember to join us at the Cathedral Basilica on the third Saturday of each month for a pro-life Mass at 8:00 a.m., followed with a rosary procession to Planned Parenthood at Boyle and Forest Park. The next Mass is scheduled for Saturday, April 17.

Infant Baptism

According to the mind of the Church, parents are obliged to see that infants are baptized within the first weeks after birth. As soon as possible after the birth, or even before it, parents should request the sacrament for their child and are to be properly instructed in preparation for it. Godparents are also encouraged to attend baptismal preparation before the child is born. If you are a registered parishioner who is or is about to become a parent or godparent, contact Laura Voegelie at 314-373-8202 to schedule a baptism or to register for baptismal preparation class.

Daily Readings for the Week...

The readings are included each week so that the parishioners who are unable to join us for daily Mass will be able to consider and pray them in union with the whole Church.

Readings for the Week April 11, 2021 through April 18, 2021

Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis

Blessings and Congratulations! Please join the clergy of the Cathedral Basilica in congratulating all those who became fully initiated into the Catholic Church during the Cathedral’s Easter Vigil, either by baptism or by profession of faith:

Bojan Balaban, Andrea Burrows, Emma Burry,
 Lindsey Chel, Joel Davis, Rosa Davis,
 Liam Dillon, Peter Goldberg,
 Winnie Hua, Adam Jung, Miles Kruzich,
 Rhiannon Lemond, Chigozie Obi, Michael Pome,
 Sarah Pratt, Jamison Rucker, Greg Standeford, Lauren Standeford, and Hayden Stephan.

Our prayers follow them all as they continue to walk with the Lord in this life-long journey of faith.

HOW TO PRAY THE CHAPLET OF DIVINE MERCY

1. Sign of the Cross

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

2. Our Father

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, Amen.

3. Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace. The Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou amongst women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death, Amen.

4. Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

5. On each of the Large Beads

Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

6. On each of the Small Beads

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

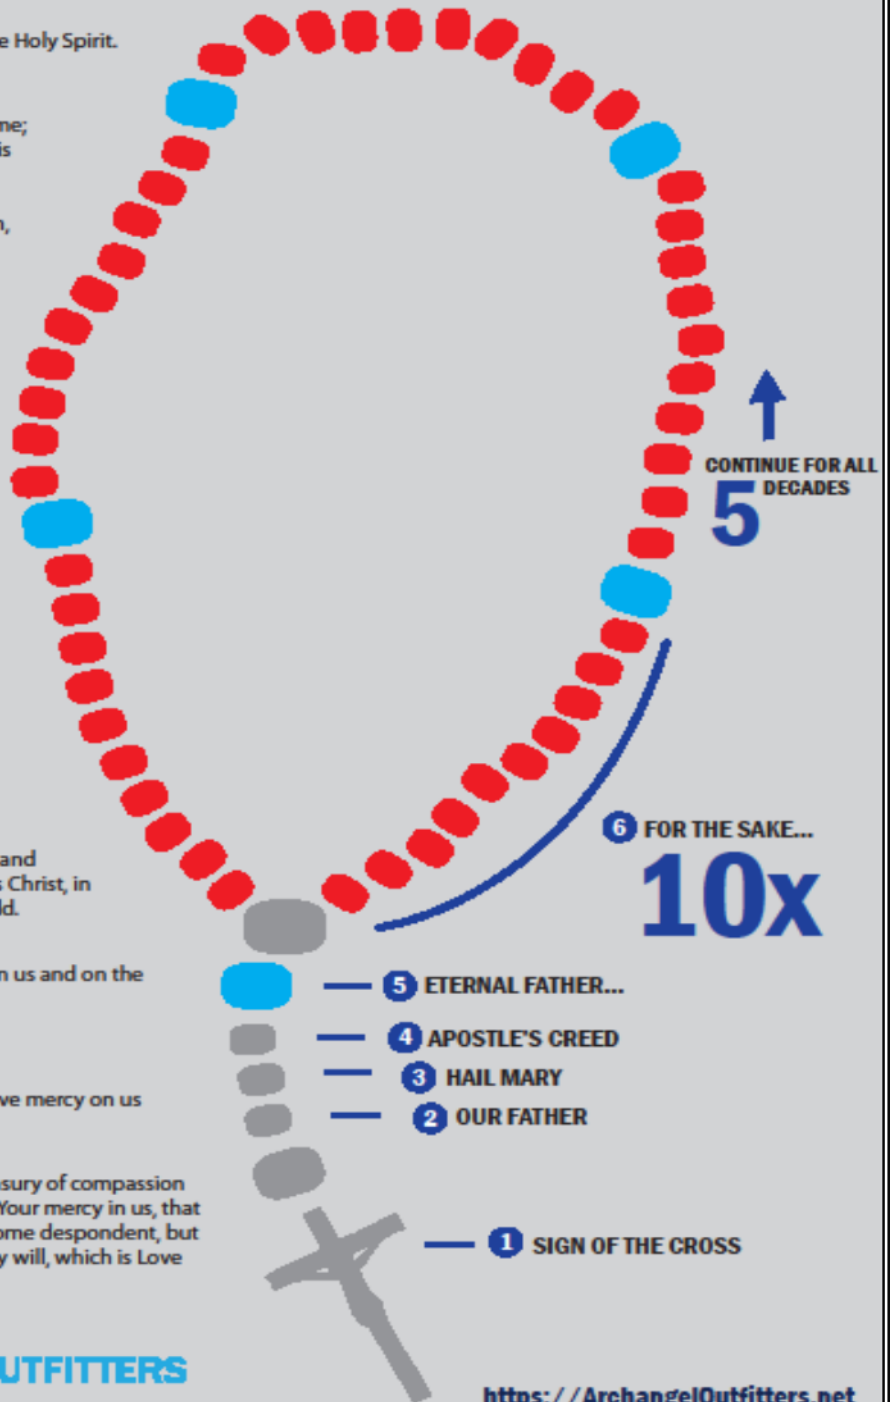

After Praying All 5 Decades

7. Concluding Doxology (Repeat 3x)

Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

8. Closing Prayer (optional)

Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion — inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself.

STEWARDSHIP ALIVE!

Anima Christi Young Adults

All young adults interested in growing the fellowship of our young adult community are invited to the next young adult gathering scheduled for Thursday, April 15. Due to a confirmation Mass being held in the Cathedral that evening, we will begin with Adoration and confessions in the St. Cecelia Chapel, located on the lower level of the church at 6:30 pm, followed by dinner in Boland Hall at 7:30 p.m. Please join us, in full or in part, to deepen your relationship with Christ and with one another. For more information, please e-mail AnimaChristiStL@gmail.com.

St. Patrick Casserole Program

Casseroles and other offerings collected by volunteers of the St. Patrick Casserole Program provides one week of dinners for the Women's Shelter, and one night of dinners for the Men's Alumni Club.

Cathedral casserole organizers will host our next "touchless" drop-off in the parish parking lot on Thursday, April 8, from 1:00 –2:00 p.m. Please contact Skip or Nicki Batchelor at 916-834-4843 for additional information.

Mercy

In the Gospel, Jesus institutes the Sacrament of Reconciliation, authorizing the Apostles to forgive sins in the name of Jesus. It is no coincidence that Jesus says, "Peace be with you" more than one time to them as he greets them. When was the last time you went to the Sacrament of Reconciliation? What beautiful peace in our hearts is found in this sacrament! Through the priest, Jesus forgives us of our sins when we are truly contrite. We receive sanctifying grace and actual graces that will help us to overcome sin in the future. Although sometimes we may still be restless and doubt God's forgiveness, we must remember the words of Christ to St. Faustina: "I am love and Mercy Itself. There is no misery that could be a match for My mercy, neither will misery exhaust it, because as it is being granted – it increases. The soul that trusts in My mercy is most fortunate, because I Myself take care of it." God's mercy is always greater than our sins. Let us approach the throne of grace and mercy, trusting in the goodness of the Lord.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own..." - Acts 4:32

All that we are and all that we have is a gift from God! Think of your family, your friends, your life, your talents and your money – these are all gifts from God! We aren't really owners of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has blessed us with. We are called to be grateful and generous with all of our gifts for the benefit of others.
