WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available most weekdays, call for availability.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

After the solemn celebrations of Easter, we are still imbued with spiritual joy, as we carry in our hearts that Easter joy. My deepest thanks to everyone who helped to make these liturgies so beautiful this past week. Most importantly I would like to extend a word of thanks to the staff of the Cathedral for their hard work and to the volunteers who helped in many ways. In addition, there are many others who gave so much of their time including our ushers, servers, Eucharistic ministers, and those who helped to clean our church, arrange flowers, and work with those in our RCIA program. Lastly, a special word of gratitude to the choir for all their hard work, that truly assisted the faithful to enter fully into the mystery of the Triduum.

We welcomed parishioners and visitors to the Cathedral Basilica in numbers we have not seen since before the pandemic began. It was so wonderful to see the Cathedral full with people coming to worship together on Easter.

Many of you should have received a letter from me regarding the Annual Catholic Appeal, which is one way we proclaim our Faith. Whether it's feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, or providing a family the resources to help fund a Catholic education for their children, your Faith has helped the Church grow stronger, lighting up the world with faith, hope, and love.

Our parishioners have pledged so far $78,000, which surpasses our parish goal of $89,770. We are well on our way to meeting the challenge goal of $224,583. Through the Appeal, we join together and make possible the Church's mission of evangelization, education, and many ministries of charity. For now, I ask you to prayerfully consider your gift to this effort of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis.

For this reason Saint John Paul II chose to call this Sunday after Easter, Divine Mercy, with a very specific image: that of Jesus' pierced side from which blood and water flowed, according to the account of an eyewitness, the Apostle John. However Jesus is now risen and the paschal Sacraments of Baptism and the Eucharist flow from him, who is alive: those who receive them with faith receive the gift of eternal life.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Seize the opportunities we're given to proclaim the power of Jesus

The week following Easter Sunday helps us enter the 'today' of the Lord

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Have you ever had a moment when time stood still — in sorrow, in joy or for any other reason? The same thing happens this week: Liturgical time stands still. Every day is treated as the day of the resurrection. Every day, the Gospel refrain is the same: "This is the day the Lord has made; let us be glad and rejoice in it" (Psalm 118:24). Every day recounts one of the resurrection episodes.

The fourth section of the Catechism is about prayer, and one of its repeated themes is the "today" of the Lord. When we enter into prayer, we enter into the "today" of the Lord — God's timing. The goal of prayer is to help our entire lives enter into the "today" of the Lord. This week is a great opportunity to practice and reflect on that — to think about how time belongs to God, and how all the time of our lives can be given more completely to God.

This week, Matthew tells us how Jesus appeared to Mary Magdalene and the other Mary and sent them with a message to the apostles. John tells us how Jesus encountered Mary Magdalene in a garden, and she went to the apostles to tell them: "I have seen the Lord." Luke tells us about Jesus' encounter with two disciples on the road to Emmaus and how they went back and told the others that they had seen the Lord. Mark gives us a summary and recap of all these events, followed by one more encounter with Jesus, who sends His disciples into the world to proclaim the Gospel.

That leads to a question: How have you encountered the risen Jesus? Perhaps you've encountered Him in confession, adoration, service, quiet moments of spontaneous prayer — or in all of those and others, each in a different way. Whatever it is, each of us needs to be able to say, along with Mary Magdalene: "I have seen the Lord."

All week long, we hear how Peter seizes the opportunity to proclaim what he has experienced in Jesus. On the day of Pentecost, as people are wondering what's happening, Peter proclaims the basic message of salvation in Jesus. While walking up to the Temple, Peter heals a man in the name of Jesus. When people gather to marvel at the healing, Peter explains that this has happened by the power of Jesus. When the Jewish leaders examine Peter and John about the healing and ask, "By what power or by what name have you done this?" Peter proclaims the resurrection and power of Jesus.

SERVE THE LORD

Notice this: Peter doesn't have to make the opening to talk about Jesus; he simply has to take the opening that's given to him. There's a great lesson for us in that! So often, when we think of evangelization, we think we have to make the opening — and we get tied up in knots trying to figure out how to do it. What we see in these episodes is that Jesus makes the opening. That means we don't have to force it. But, when the opening is given we — like Peter — we have to be ready to take it!

We've all had moments when we missed the opening. As we think more deeply about evangelization, and try to get better at it, let's pray that we will learn — like Peter — how to take the opening when it's given.

Sacrament of Marriage

Congratulations to Steve & Kali Howard who were united in the Sacrament of Marriage at the Cathedral Basilica on Saturday, April 1, 2023.

Love is patient, love is kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth.

1 Corinthians 13:4-8

Sacrament of Baptism

Congratulations to Fitzgerald Edward Victor Ankey son of Kevin and Bridget Ankey baptized in Christ on February 26, 2023 here at the Cathedral Basilica.

May the blessing of the Lord be always upon him, and may God watch over and cherish all children whom He has blessed with the grace of Baptism.

The Gospel of the Lord

On the evening of the first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples, were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

APRIL 16, 2023

Men of the Cathedral March Adoration

The MEN OF THE CATHEDRAL cordially invite all parishioners and visitors to join them for them with Adoration of the Holy Eucharist on Tuesday, April 25th at 6 PM.

We will have just celebrated the passion, death and rising from the dead of our Lord. What a terrific way to continue to honor the ultimate sacrifice He gave to offer us salvation!

Adoration will begin promptly at 6 PM. Confessions will be heard during Adoration.

All men are invited to drinks, dinner and fellowship in Boland Hall immediately after the conclusion of Adoration. In anticipation of Cinco de Mayo, we will have a Mexican feast! A suggested donation of $20 is appreciated.

Please consider making this prayerful evening a family event. Invite your family and friends to celebrate Christ through Adoration.

For dinner reservations, please contact Michael Weisbrod at 314.918.2893 or michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org by Monday, April 24th.

Women of the Cathedral

Women of the Cathedral– May 13, 2023

Dear Ladies of the Cathedral Parish,

Come grow in faith and fellowship with other ladies in the parish at the monthly gatherings of the Women of the Cathedral. We gather in the name of Jesus, our risen Lord and God.

At our last gathering we learned about three foundations of the spiritual life common to all the spiritual masters—identity, unworthiness, and destiny. The ladies shared how personal feelings of unworthiness have been part of their own spiritual journeys.

Our next gathering is on Sunday, May 13, 2023. Note: We will gather on the second Saturday of the month as there is a conflict using Boland Hall on the first Saturday our usual meeting time. We will begin with 8am Mass in the Cathedral, and then go to Boland Hall for light breakfast. After brief introductions and social time, an informative program is led by Msgr. Mikesch, our spiritual director, with closing prayer at 10am. An ongoing highlight is “Ask Msgr. Mikesch Time.”

To learn more and RSVP for breakfast, contact Barbara Murray at 314-974-6900 or email murraybj@swbell.net by May 10, 2023. Please send your questions for “Ask Msgr. Time” when you RSVP.

STEWARDSHIP ALIVE!

Divine Mercy Sunday

On Divine Mercy Sunday, April 30, 2000, Pope John Paul II canonized Saint Faustina Kowalska, and declared the Second Sunday of Easter as "Divine Mercy Sunday."

In her diary Saint Faustina wrote, "May this message radiate from this place to our beloved homeland and throughout the world. May the binding promises of the Lord Jesus be fulfilled; from here there must go forth 'the spark which will prepare the world for his final coming (cf. Diary, 1732)'."

Catholic Charities– CRSS

Cardinal Ritter Senior Services (CRSS) is a ministry of Catholic Charities that provides compassionate care for senior adults through high quality residential communities which include independent living, assisted, and skilled nursing care. CRSS also provides seniors in need who are aging at home access to extensive support services, information, and referrals.

Sundays during baseball season, CRSS is looking for volunteers to assist with Cardinals Watch Parties. Volunteers are needed to help senior residents to and from the activities room and serve snacks.

To get involved or for more information, please contact Linda Pallmann.

Let's Keep in Touch

Don't miss out on the latest parish news. Flocknotes is a fast and easy email distribution platform used by the Cathedral Basilica to keep in touch with our parishioners.

Anima Christi Young Adults

Anyone between the ages of 18 and 39 is invited to join in prayer and fellowship with the young adult community of the Cathedral Basilica. On Thursday, April 20th, we will be spending our normal Holy Hour at Carmelite Monastery (9150 Clayton Rd., St. Louis, MO, 63124). We will return to our normal schedule on April 27th with adoration at the Cathedral.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' John 20:19

Are you good at making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, like a new neighbor, a new work colleague or a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home? When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. We are made for relationships – with God and each other. When you see yourself as a beloved son or daughter of God, you tend to see others the same way, too – just as God, Our Father, sees us.
