FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

On Monday, June 5, we begin the cleaning and restoration of the Baldachino and the mosaics surrounding it in the Cathedral Basilica Sanctuary. This will probably be the most extensive cleaning of this area in the history of the Cathedral. John Tiedmann Inc and his workers will need full/uninterrupted access to the sanctuary during this time. Thus, beginning Monday, June 5, 2023, ALL weekday Masses, the 7:00 am, 8:00 am, and 12:05 pm Masses, and the 8:00 am Mass on Saturday mornings will take place in the Saint Cecilia Chapel in the lower level of the Cathedral Basilica. The 8:00 am Mass will continue to be live-streamed during this time.

To enter the Chapel, you must proceed outside the Cathedral and enter through the ramp on the Newstead side. There will be signage indicating the entrance to the Chapel. John Tiedmann will not work on Sundays; therefore, ALL Sunday Masses 8:00 am, 10:00 am, and 12:00 pm and the Saturday Vigil at 5:00 pm will take place in the main Sanctuary of the Cathedral Basilica. If you have any questions, please call the rectory.

Projects like this are made possible through the generous support of our annual Cathedral Gala. Monies raised through the Gala solely support the preservation and restoration of the Basilica. Thank you to all who support the Gala, and mark your calendars for this year's event on Saturday, August 19. Invitations will be going out soon.

Please also mark your calendars for the Cathedral's Corpus Christi Mass and procession to take place on Sunday, June 11, at the 12 Noon Mass. This will be a wonderful display of our faith in the Real Presence and a great way to demonstrate our faith in the wider Central West End Community and St. Louis. The feast of the Body and Blood of the Lord and procession with the Blessed Sacrament will remind us of our pilgrimage to Heaven and is a prayerful edifying act of the entire church.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Message to the faithful of the archdiocese

We are called to be set ablaze by the new Pentecost to share the Gospel of Christ

This weekend, the Church worldwide celebrates the Solemnity of Pentecost, commemorating the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles, the foundation of the Church and the beginning of her mission to all nations and peoples.

The mystery of Pentecost urges us to pray and commit to the mission. The Holy Spirit inspires faith, hope and charity in the hearts of the faithful and ennoble the numerous and varied ways of transmitting the Christian message according to the culture and customs of all times and places. While giving us access to communion with God in prayer, the Holy Spirit also prompts us toward service of our neighbor by encountering him, reconciliation, witness, desire for justice and peace, renewal of outlook, social progress and missionary commitment.

We launched the All Things New strategic pastoral planning process almost two years ago. We prayed to the Holy Spirit for guidance and committed ourselves to this archdiocese's faithful. An extensive listening process was undertaken in all parishes. I then consulted the archdiocesan Council of Priests regarding every parish under consideration. I then spent time in further prayer, study and discernment. I have reached the following decisions about the archdiocese.

Moving forward, the Archdiocese of St. Louis will be reshaped from 178 individual parishes into 134 parishes. These parishes will be overseen about 90 diocesan pastors and 17 religious order pastors; many will serve more than one parish.

These modifications include 35 parishes being subsumed into neighboring parishes and 15 parishes being merged to create five new parishes. There will be a new personal parish for the Spanish-speaking community in St. Charles County.

Our communities should reevaluate their current pastoral care, social outreach and evangelization efforts

ARCHBISHOP

SERVE THE LORD

to see how they can be refined or reinvented, even those parishes where there is no change to the pastor or parish structure.

Our new vicariate model, with parishes grouped by geographic region, will reinforce this by helping streamline parish support and administration. I am also establishing a new Office of Parish Mission and Vitality to help me oversee these efforts.

Over the next several months, our priests will discern with their people what the best use of our facilities should be. Priority will be given to providing the sacraments and necessary pastoral care to all who live within their boundaries and reimagining what a vibrant, evangelizing parish should look like.

As we pray through these changes, we are all called to work together toward one common mission: to make all things new for the glory of our Risen Lord.

Many parishioners are taking on more responsibility for their faith and service to others. In the past several months, 2,000 parishioners across the archdiocese have participated in our Evangelization 101 series, empowering them to ignite a new spark of evangelization in their parishes.

In St. Louis, we are called today to start a new chapter in our 200-year history. May a new Pentecost set us each ablaze for the Gospel of Christ. I pray that we will work together to forge new pathways and ensure that the treasure of our faith continues to bring healing and hope to a broken world.

May the Holy Spirit guide us.

Most Rev. Mitchell T. Rozanski,
Archbishop of St. Louis

The Blessed Trinity

The interior of the baldachino is decorated with mosaics rich in symbolism. At the center top (pictured above) is a symbol illustrating the fundamental doctrine of the Blessed Trinity: three distinct persons in the unity of one nature. In the center, against a gold background, is a triangle emblematic of the Blessed Trinity with the word “Deus” (God) within the triangle.

Set at each point of the triangle are the words “Pater”, “Filius”, and “Spiritus” (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit). Between these names of the three divine persons is the word “EST” (is) connecting them. When read in sequence it states, “The Father is God, the Son is God, the Spirit is God; thus, emphasizing the distinct persons of the Trinity in divine unity.

The Gospel of the Lord

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

John 3:16-18

Women of the Cathedral

Women of the Cathedral– June 10, 2023 (Second Saturday in June)

Dear Ladies of the Cathedral Parish,

Come grow in faith and fellowship with other ladies in the parish at the monthly gatherings of the Women of the Cathedral.

At our last gathering we reflected on particular scripture texts and invited the ladies to share their reflections.

Our next gathering is on Saturday, June 10, 2023. Note: This is the week after our usual first Saturday gathering date due to a scheduling conflict. We will begin with 8am Mass in the Cathedral, and then go to Boland Hall for light breakfast. After brief introductions and social time, an informative program is led by Msgr. Mikesch, our spiritual director, with closing prayer at 10am. An ongoing highlight is “Ask Msgr. Mikesch Time.”

To learn more and RSVP for breakfast, contact Barbara Murray at 314-974-6900 or email murraybj@swbell.net by June 7, 2023. Please send your questions for “Ask Msgr. Time” when you RSVP.

Love and Grace

The gospel for this weekend shows Jesus speaking to Nicodemus about God’s love and salvation. He tells Nicodemus that God loved the world so much that He have His only Son, so that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life, and that those who do not believe will face consequences, they are missing out on the opportunity to experience God’s love and salvation.

The love and grace that flow from the unity of the Holy Trinity are the very foundation of Christian faith and life. God the Father’s love is demonstrated in sending His Son to redeem us from sin, and the Holy Spirit’s grace is poured out to us as a result of Christ’s sacrifice.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“The Catholic Church has a long history of service to those who are most vulnerable and remains the largest private provider of social services in the United States. Through the sacrificial efforts of faithful Catholics, the Church serves millions through diocesan ministries and agencies, Catholic hospitals and healthcare systems, immigration clinics, shelters, and Catholic schools and parishes. ...The Church consistently bears witness in word and deed to the beauty and dignity of every human life—including both mother and child.”

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son..." JOHN 3:16

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love and forgiveness? Are you generous with your time, skills, money and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you "fit it in" when it's convenient for you? God desires a personal relationship with us so much that He gave us His Son, unconditionally! Pray for a grateful and generous heart.
