FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This week, I am writing to you with another project update that will impact your arrival at the Basilica by the end of next week. As part of the exterior restoration, the workers will begin to work on the disabled ramp access entrance to the Cathedral. For all practical purposes, this entrance will be closed. The Cathedral has contracted for a company to install a temporary ramp that will be installed this coming Monday or Tuesday, and it will be installed by the entrance to the All Saints Chapel. This ramp should remain in place for about 2 weeks.

In addition, work has commenced on the bathroom project. Most likely, beginning this coming Monday, all bathrooms located at the main entrance will be closed, and the bathroom trailers located on the Cathedral Parking Lot will be fully functional. Thus, in order to use the bathroom, you will need to exit the Cathedral and use one of the bathrooms located in the trailer. One of the bathroom trailers will have disabled access as well. If you have any questions, please feel free to call the main office of the rectory at 314.373.8200.

This Saturday, we celebrate the Ordination to the Permanent Diaconate for 15 men. Deacons share in the ministry of Holy Orders with bishops and priests. At the Ordination, these men will declare willingness to undertake the responsibility of the diaconate as well as obedience to the Archbishop and his successors. The ministry of a deacon is defined as a ministry of liturgy, Word and Charity.

Many thanks to everyone who assisted for this year's Corpus Christi Procession. This Solemnity is inseparable from the Holy Thursday Mass of Lord's Supper, in which the institution of the Eucharist is also celebrated. While on the evening of Holy Thursday we relive the mystery of Christ who offers himself to us in the bread broken and wine poured out, today, in celebration of Corpus Christi, this same mystery is proposed for the adoration and meditation of God's people. The Blessed Sacrament is carried in procession through the streets of towns and villages, to show that the risen Christ walks among us and guides us toward the kingdom of heaven.

Also, a huge shout out to the Cathedral Choir. They will be taking a break for the Summer and will be greatly missed. I am so proud of all the members of our choir for the dedication to the sharing of their beautiful voices to enhance our liturgy. They truly help us to life our hearts, and minds in praise of the Holy Trinity. Many thanks as well to Andrew Kreigh, Director of Sacred Music and to Ben Blasingame for their hard work.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Pushing the reset button in our lives

The theme of resetting our attitudes and actions plays out frequently in the Scripture reading this week

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

“Let’s push the reset button” is a consistent theme in this week’s readings.

The prophet Elijah helps Israel push the reset button. The people had given in to idolatry, worshipping the false god Baal. Elijah challenged the prophets of Baal to a contest on Mount Carmel. Baal did not respond to their cries to consume a sacrificial bull; as Scripture says: “no one answered, and no one was listening.” But God responded to Elijah’s prayer with fire and brought the Israelites back to their senses.

Afterward, Elijah needs God’s help in pushing the reset button in his own faith life! Struggling with his courage, the prophet flees to Mount Horeb to hide. This time God does not come in fire but in the still, small, whispering voice. And in that quiet whisper He restores Elijah’s courage for mission.

We begin a series of readings from the Gospel of Matthew this week. And we begin with the Sermon on the Mount, which is one of the great “reset” moments in salvation history. Jesus comes as the new Moses, to reset people’s attitude toward the law. He comes not to abolish but to renew and deepen the demands of the law.

We celebrate St. Anthony of Padua on June 13. He originally joined the Canons Regular of St. Augustine, then he pushed the reset button and became a Franciscan. He originally wanted to preach in Africa, but he pushed the reset button and ended up preaching in France and Italy. He was going to be a simple friar, but he pushed the reset button and became a university professor — the first Franciscan to teach theology to other Franciscans.

All of these points converge on two simple yet profound questions:

1) Where do I need to push the reset button in my own life?

2) Where do we, collectively, need to push the reset button in our parishes and schools?

One of the vows Benedictine monks take is called “conversatio morum.” This hard-to-translate term encompasses many things, but one aspect is a kind of openness to perpetual conversion — to pushing the reset button over and over in our lives in order to grow closer to Christ. This Benedictine attitude and practice is a gift to the whole Church!

What are some practical things we might do to help us follow their example and push the reset button in our own lives?

Think about reading one chapter of the Gospels a day — 89 chapters in total. This three-month process can be like rolling a snowball: Our encounter with Christ will grow a little bit at a time as we do so, and that encounter with Him will help us push the reset button in our lives.

Think about reading one Psalm a day — 150 Psalms in total. As St. Ambrose once said: “In the book of Psalms there is profit for all ... All who read it may find the cure for their own individual failings. All with eyes to see can discover in it a complete gymnasium for the soul.”

Scripture tells repeatedly about God helping His people push the reset button in their lives. Let’s be attentive to how He’s asking that of each of us, individually and collectively.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand." - Mark 3:2 Within your parish community, do your ministries collaborate with each other or do they compete against each other? Do your parish ministries work for the greater glory of God or do they work for the glory of the people running them? The primary goal of parish ministry is not to increase Mass attendance, increase the number of volunteers or increase offertory. The primary goal is to be one Body of Christ that helps people take one step closer to Jesus. If it's not doing that, it's not worth doing.

Catholic Charities

Catholic Charities’ LAMP program (Language. Access. Multicultural. People.) offers around-the-clock in-person and virtual interpreting and translation services - in courtrooms, hospitals, counseling sessions, and other critical settings - that empower people and build relationships by bridging cultural and linguistic divides. LAMP interpreters translate in more than 48 different languages, including American Sign Language (ASL).

LAMP offers a free Community Interpreting Line for limited English-speaking families in our community that is available 24/7 and 365 days a year. Call 1-888-260-3791 for assistance. If you have any language skills and want to make a difference in your community, interpreting and translation work ensures life-giving services are accessible. More information, please go to ccstl.org or contact your Parish Ambassador Alisa Goessling at 314-367-5500.

Infant Baptism

According to the mind of the Church, parents are obliged to see that infants are baptized within the first weeks after birth. As soon as possible after the birth, or even before it, parents should request the sacrament for their child and are to be properly instructed in preparation for it. Godparents are also encouraged to have baptismal preparation before the child is born. If you are a registered parishioner who is or is about to become a parent or godparent, contact the parish office at 314-373-8202 to schedule a baptism.
