FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

In 1764, Pierre Laclède Liguist and Auguste Chouteau established the city of St. Louis, naming it in honor of King Louis IX of France—a saint, crusader, and model Christian monarch. It was not until 1826 that Pope Leo XII established the Diocese of St. Louis. This year marks a historic milestone for the Archdiocese of St. Louis as we celebrate the 200th anniversary of its founding.

Throughout these two centuries, the Archdiocese has been a beacon of faith, evangelization, education, and service throughout Missouri and beyond. For generations, Catholics have built up the Church through their prayers, sacrifices, and faithful witness to the Gospel, leaving a rich legacy that continues to inspire us today.

To commemorate this remarkable anniversary, all the faithful are warmly invited to participate in the Bicentennial Mass on Saturday, July 18, 2026, at 10:00 a.m. at the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Louis.

The Mass will be celebrated by His Excellency Archbishop Gabriele Giordano Caccia, Apostolic Nuncio and Permanent Observer of the Holy See to the United Nations. The homily will be preached by His Eminence Cardinal Timothy Dolan, Archbishop of New York and a native son of the Archdiocese of St. Louis.

This special liturgy will bring together clergy, religious, and faithful from across the Archdiocese as we give thanks to Almighty God for the blessings of the past two centuries and pray for the continued growth and vitality of the Church in the years ahead. It will be an opportunity to honor the legacy of those who have gone before us while renewing our commitment to the mission entrusted to us today.

Whether your family has been part of the Archdiocese for generations or you have recently found a home within the Catholic community, we encourage you to join us for this joyful celebration. Together, let us thank God for 200 years of faith and look forward with hope to the future He has prepared for the Church in St. Louis.

Please do mark your calendar for this historic celebration.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

It's Time to Take the Next Step in Our Relationship with God

The pattern we hear in Scriptures of God inviting people deeper is repeated in our own lives

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Many of this week's readings converge around the theme of 'taking the next step.'

For example, we have two Gospel readings from Matthew 5 in which Jesus says: "You have heard that it was said ... But I say to you..." Let's slow one of those down and add some commentary.

"You have heard that it was said, 'an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.'" Yes. All right — that was enough then, when it was said. And it was a step forward at the time. But at this stage of your faith, if you're going to move forward in this relationship with God, it's time to take the next step. Therefore: "But I say to you...When someone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other one to him as well."

Another example comes in Matthew 6, where Jesus gives instructions on almsgiving, prayer and fasting. Again, let's slow one of these down and add some commentary.

"Take care not to perform righteous deeds in order that people may see them." Let me clarify: I don't want you to stop performing righteous deeds! You're doing the right thing — keep that up! But you're doing the right thing for the wrong reason, and therefore in the wrong way. Take the next step! Start doing that thing for a different reason, and it will change the way you do it. So: "when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your almsgiving may be secret. And your Father who sees in secret will repay you." Keep doing the things you're doing! The next step is to do them for the right reason and in the right way.

ARCHBISHOP MITCHELL ROZANSKI

SERVE THE LORD WITH GLADNESS

How does that lesson apply to us?

Well, consider the story about Ahab and Naboth, which we also read this week. Ahab's wife (Jezebel) has Naboth killed so that Ahab can take ownership of Naboth's vineyard. When the prophet Elijah confronts Ahab about this evil deed, Ahab's immediate reaction is repentance. That's part of why the Psalm, after this reading, is Psalm 51: "Have mercy on me God, in your goodness ... Thoroughly wash me from my guilt and of my sin cleanse me."

We need to realize: that's David's psalm, after he commits adultery with Bathsheba and murders her husband! Ahab, at this point, is like David: a sinner who repents.

But what's the next step? Ah, there's the difference! David stays with his repentance and becomes one of the great heroes of the Bible. Ahab doesn't stay with his repentance and becomes one of the great villains of the Bible.

It's like the difference between Judas and Peter. Both of them betray the Lord. But what happens next? Peter turns back. He allows himself to be forgiven and — wonder of wonders! — even commissioned by the Lord. Judas doesn't take that step.

Scripture abounds with examples of God inviting people to take the next step. Scripture abounds with examples of people accepting the invitation, or not. That same pattern is replicated in the world today and in our own lives. No matter how little or how far we've come, God is always inviting us to take the next step. What's the next step in your relationship with the Lord?

Sacrament of Marriage

Congratulations to Michael & Molly Federer (pictured below right) who were united in the Sacrament of Marriage at the Cathedral Basilica on Saturday, May 16, 2026 at 1:30 in the afternoon.

Love is patient, love is kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth.

1 Corinthians 13:4-8

Sacrament of Baptism

Congratulations and God's continued blessings on Noah Matthew and the Castisimo Family. (pictured below left) He was baptized on May 3, 2026.

"And now why do you wait? Rise and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on his name." Acts 22:16

Stewardship Reflection

“As you go, make this proclamation: ‘The kingdom of heaven is at hand.’” Matthew 10:7

Many of us take our lives for granted. We think we have plenty of time to “repent.” Maybe we should live with a little more urgency in making things right with God. This is the difference in living our discipleship out of obligation versus out of love. Obligation implies we do the minimum required. Love implies we want a relationship. God wants us to be with Him in Heaven forever, but He also wants to be in relationship with us right now, while we are on earth. Start this second – invite the Lord into your heart.

WITNESS TO LOVE

Do you love your marriage, your faith, and helping young couples grow into a strong marriage?

We are launching a new program, Witness to Love, that will provide our engaged couples with one-on-one couples mentoring to give the best foundation for their marriage.

Criteria to be a mentor:

1. 5+ years sacramentally married
2. Actively practicing the Catholic faith
3. Loving your marriage
4. Willingness to “be real” about the graces & challenges of married life!

If you have interest in being a mentor, please email Father Archer
