FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Last Sunday, our Parish Council hosted a Donut Sunday after the 8:00 am and 10:00 am Masses. It was a great success. After many months of social distancing, it was wonderful to have people together, sharing a donut, coffee, conversation, and building parish community. In the coming months, as we slowly come out of the pandemic, we will continue our rebuilding of the parish community of the Cathedral Basilica Parish. Also, I would like to extend a word of thanks to the members of the Parish Council who assisted in making the Coffee and Donuts event happen.

I have been approached by many visitors and parishioners asking when the Sign of Peace will return. Beginning this weekend, we will resume the practice of extending the Sign of Peace to one another. I would ask everyone to be mindful of those who may not feel comfortable physically extending the Sign of Peace. We are all in different places regarding our comfort level in terms of social distancing.

In addition to this change, those distributing Holy Communion will no longer wear a mask, unless they have not been fully vaccinated or if they simply feel more comfortable wearing a mask while distributing Holy Communion, he or she may do so. The practice of distributing communion on the tongue to the faithful at the communion rail will continue.

The scene that Mark presents to us is rather common in Jesus' public life: a crowd of needy people gather around him, seeking healing and comfort. Even one of the leading men of the synagogue of Capernaum makes his way through the crowd, approaches Jesus, and implores him: "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live." Finding himself in front of the powerlessness of men and women, Jairus sees his only hope in Jesus. If this man who, though among the powerful of Capernaum, strips himself of pride, arrogance and security of social dignity and is not ashamed of asking for help, how much more should we do it? His words are not a long speech but a prayer that is both simple and dramatic. Jesus does not waste any time and "goes with him" immediately.

As news of the girl's death spreads, everyone loses all hope that she might be healed and says not to disturb the teacher from Nazareth anymore. And perhaps Jairus is about to give into resignation. But Jesus says to the desperate man: "Do not fear, only believe." Having arrived at Jairus' house and surrounded by the weeping and shouting of the crowd, Jesus tells everyone to be calm because "the child is not dead but sleeping." In biblical language, death is understood as falling asleep in anticipation of being awakened. The dead therefore lie as if asleep and wait for the voice of the Lord himself to awake them. And so, Jesus stands in front of the girl. God's mercy is stronger than death. And it is on this mercy that we build our lives, like the wise man who builds his house on the rock.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Do we imagine 'victory' according to the pattern of Jesus' life?

Though we may not win in earthly terms, bearing witness to the Gospel shows the ultimate victory

ARCHBISHOP MITCHELL ROZANSKI

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

What does victory look like?

With the Stanley Cup Playoffs reaching their climax, Major League Baseball's All-Star game right around the corner, and the Summer Olympics drawing near, it's easy to imagine victory in a particular way.

But the feast days we celebrate this week — St. Irenaeus (June 28), Sts. Peter and Paul (June 29), and St. Thomas the Apostle (July 3) — can help reorient our imagination toward a Christian notion of victory. These saints did not always "win" in earthly terms. In fact, in earthly terms, they all decidedly lost — all were martyred. But they did always "bear witness" to the Gospel — the dying and rising of Jesus, and our opportunity to share in His life. That bearing witness was the key to their victory in ultimate terms, and it's that ultimate victory in them that we celebrate this week.

That's something to contemplate: do we imagine "victory" according to the pattern of Jesus' life, or do we set Jesus aside and imagine it only in earthly terms?

A little reflection shows that the words and deeds of Jesus were not calculated to "win" in earthly terms. He said things that lost Him followers — think of the Bread of Life discourse in the Gospel of John. He did things that brought opposition from the powers-that-be — think of His eating with tax collectors and sinners, or the cleansing of the Temple. The final action of His earthly life was to die on the cross.

The pattern of Jesus' victory should inform our approach to politics and culture. So often we find ourselves calculating a strategy to gain victory — by which we usually mean an increase of earthly power. There is definitely some good to that. But an increase of earthly power is not ultimately what drove the saints we celebrate this week, and it's not ultimately what drove Jesus. You might summarize their approach this way: I did not always win in earthly terms. But I did always bear witness, and that's how I won the ultimate victory.

What would it mean to make "bearing witness" the key to our definition of victory? To be sure, it might result in the loss of some political and cultural capital. But we might face those earthly losses and say, with the saints: "That's OK. It was an occasion for us to bear witness — and that's the path to victory in Christ."

St. Paul says that Jesus Christ is the capstone of our faith. Living so close to the St. Louis Arch we know what a capstone is. St. Paul did, too. That's why he said: "through Him the whole structure is held together." But if Christ is the capstone, that also means that without Him the whole structure falls apart. I'm concerned that out approach to political and cultural "victory" is often conceived and imagined apart from Jesus Christ. If that's true, then our approach is destined to fall apart.

Sometimes we win in earthly terms. Sometimes we win by the cross. Our primary job is to give witness to the faith. We leave the outcome in God's hands.

Let's allow Christ to be the capstone of our definition of victory.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

"We ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith."

Infant Baptism

According to the mind of the Church, parents are obliged to see that infants are baptized within the first weeks after birth. As soon as possible after the birth, or even before it, parents should request the sacrament for their child and are to be properly instructed in preparation for it. Godparents are also encouraged to attend baptismal preparation before the child is born. If you are a registered parishioner who is or is about to become a parent or godparent, contact Laura Voegelie at 314-373-8202 to schedule a baptism or to register for baptismal preparation class.

Eucharistic Exposition

The Blessed Sacrament, the very presence of Christ's body and blood in the Eucharist, is reserved in the tabernacle of the Blessed Sacrament Chapel to the east of the main sanctuary. At all hours the Cathedral is open, people may be found praying there before the Lord "face to face." Each Saturday afternoon, beginning at 3:30 p.m., the Eucharist is displayed for prayer and adoration in public exposition in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel for a holy hour. Following this holy hour, the Evening Prayer of the Church with Benediction is celebrated.

Additionally, the Blessed Sacrament is displayed for public adoration and prayer on the First Friday of the month. First Friday Adoration begins at approximately 8:30 a.m., following the completion of the 8:00 a.m. Mass, and concludes with Benediction at 11:45 a.m. Our next First Friday Adoration will be held next Friday, July 2.

Special Blessing

On Tuesday, June 29, the Church celebrates the solemn Feast of Saints Peter and Paul, and is one of a few days on which the special privilege of plenary indulgence may be gained by those who join in Mass in a Basilica. Accordingly, a plenary indulgence is gained by joining us at one of the regularly scheduled Masses on this feast day along with fulfilling the usual conditions (sacramental confession, communion, and prayer for the intention of the Holy Father).

Sacred Heart Month

June has traditionally been the month devoted to a special attention to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Every Cathedral household is encouraged to develop a familial devotion to the Sacred Heart. This is a significant effort to instill in each member of the parish a new or deeper devotion to the "love of the Son of God" who has embraced His cross for our salvation.

Or listen on the Covenant Network app on your mobile device or on our website OurCatholicRadio.org.

Alert for National Holiday

On Sunday, July 4, our nation celebrates its birthday and marks the anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. We celebrate the political and social heritage which we have received from our founding fathers. At the heart of their expression of political independence from the colonial overlords from Europe was the acknowledgement that "unalienable rights to life and liberty" are the endowment we receive from our Creator, and not from any worldly power. We Catholics express our continued gratefulness to the Creator, whom we know as our heavenly Father, through the supreme expression of thanksgiving which is the Eucharist. Certainly then, Holy Mass on the holiday is the best "celebration" of our independence from this world's power and our dependence on God.

Because July 4th falls on Sunday this year, please join us on Monday, July 5, for a special Mass at 8:00 am to commemorate the national holiday. This will be the only Mass celebrated here at the Cathedral on July 5.

All are invited to join us online or in-person for our next organ recital, which is scheduled for Wednesday, July 7, at 4:00pm.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"...as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality." - 2 Cor 8:14

One of the tenants of living a grateful and generous lifestyle is giving without expecting anything in return. It is important that we not only grow, nurture and share our gifts; but that we also teach our children and encourage others to do the same. This is the communal aspect of our Catholic faith. We are the "Body of Christ". We are called to be dependent on each other and not live in isolation.

Anima Christi Young Adults

All young adults interested in growing the fellowship of our young adult community are invited to the next young adult gathering scheduled for Thursday, July 1. Our "First Thursday" gathering begins with a Holy Hour in the church at 5:30 pm (enter through the west door by the playground), followed by Mass at 6:30 pm, and concludes with a dinner at 7:00 pm. Please join us, in full or in part, to deepen your relationship with Christ and with one another. For more info, please e-mail AnimaChristiStL@gmail.com.

Men of the Cathedral

It is with joy that the Men of the Cathedral will gather for Adoration and Fellowship on Tuesday, June 29. We convene in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel at 6:00 pm for Adoration; confessions will also be heard during this time.

Following Adoration, dinner will be served in Boland Hall. An offering of $20 is suggested. As we launch into summer, we will have a special treat: a homemade BBQ dinner. To ensure enough food is prepared for all, please RSVP to Michael Weisbrod at michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org or call 314-918-2893 no later than the Monday morning, June 28.

We look forward to seeing you and encourage you to invite your friends and family.

For the Poor

On the first Sunday of every month, the Cathedral Parish collects foodstuffs and canned goods (non-perishable items only, please!) for delivery to food pantries in the area. Our next parish food drive will be held Sunday, July 4.

Eyeglass Drive

"The Respectacle Project", an eyeglass recycling program, facilitates the redistribution of quality used eyeglasses to those in need both locally and abroad. Donations are typically accepted on the first Sunday of every month. Our next eyeglass drive will be held Sunday, July 4.

The Word

Many of us have heard the jokes that Catholics don't read the Bible. While it is true that the sacramental life of the Catholic Church is wonderful and surpasses the power of Scripture alone, it is imperative for us to read and pray with Scripture. Jesus, the Word made flesh, reminds us in His words to the disciples how important it is to hear the Word of God, to meditate on it, and to implement its truths into our daily lives. He reminds us of the necessity to be rooted in it and to allow it to become the wellspring from which all of our thoughts, words, and actions flow. We should read Scripture every single day of our lives, whether that means going to daily Mass and listening to the readings, praying lectio divina, or praying a daily Bible verse on one of the various apps. St. Jerome once said that ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ. We come to a fuller knowledge and relationship with the Lord when we read the Scriptures. Visit archstl.org/dynamic for more info.

Why A Registered Parishioner

Due to the number of requests for baptisms and weddings, the Cathedral Parish adopted a policy years ago that generally requires parents to be registered parishioners of the parish before their infant may be baptized here, or for an engaged person to be a registered parishioner and practicing Catholic for a minimum of one year for preferred dates and for a more modest stipend. Non-parishioners must be registered in a Catholic parish somewhere and will need to secure their pastor's permission to be baptized or married outside of their proper parish before we can schedule any ceremony. If you attend Mass at the Cathedral regularly but have not yet registered, call the parish office for more information on how to get registered today!

Your Caution is Requested

A necessary caution is directed to all who visit the Cathedral Basilica: carefully avoid leaving purses, packages, computers, and other valuables on the car seats or otherwise in plain view when parked on the lot or surrounding streets, even for short periods. Lock belongings in the trunk out of sight. Everyone should exercise prudent responsibility.

LITURGICAL ETIQUETTE ...

External gestures of reverence can become a witness to the truths of our faith. For this reason, we wish to remind our guests and parishioners of habits or practices which are not appropriate.

- The rule of fasting for an hour before one receives the Eucharist still holds, and thus makes the chewing of gum in church completely disrespectful and inappropriate.
- Although the Church does not require everyone to be dressed in their "Easter finest" every week for Mass, please remember that the way we dress for church is, oftentimes, a sign of how important the celebration of the Eucharist is to us. Overly revealing clothing or bare midriffs are never appropriate.
- Churches are meant to be sacred space, places where all can pray and worship. While a cordial greeting is never out of place, carrying on an audible and protracted conversation is never appropriate.
- External gestures of reverence can become a witness to the truths of our faith. The bow immediately before receiving Holy Communion should be done with the conscious recognition that it is the Lord Himself before Whom we bow. He is truly present in the Eucharist, in both the host and the cup, and the extension of the hands must acknowledge our acceptance of a gift, not a grabbing for something owed us. The hands are completely empty, extended in the gesture of acceptance. The Lord should not be just another item among keys or other personal items.
- Our spoken and sung responses at Mass are always meant to be done communally, with whatever abilities were bestowed on us by our Father. What is believed and held in our hearts ought to be expressed outwardly during the Mass in word and in music.
- Finally, out of respect and reverence for the presence of Christ in the Eucharist, arriving at Mass on time and remaining until the priest has recessed down the aisle is appropriate behavior. Leaving Mass early and disturbing the flow of communion in order to exit is never appropriate. Please place cell phones in the silent mode, and please remain in church till the end of Mass to be blessed and commissioned to go forth in Christ's name.
