FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday, we bid farewell to two beloved priests: Father Zachary Povis and Father Joseph Jiang. While it is never easy to say goodbye, we do so with deep gratitude in our hearts for the many ways each of them has served and blessed our Cathedral parish.

Father Joseph Jiang has a unique and special history with our community. Ordained in 2010, he was first assigned to the Cathedral Basilica and, remarkably, it has remained his parish home for the entirety of his 15 years of priestly ministry. Though he stepped away briefly to pursue advanced studies in Canon Law, his priestly heart remained rooted in this community. We are especially thankful for his faithful presence, quiet strength, and generous service over the years. Father Jiang has touched the lives of countless parishioners through his pastoral care, his love for the liturgy, and his unwavering dedication to the mission of the Church.

Father Zachary Povis began his ministry at the Cathedral not long after I arrived in 2019. At that time, he was serving Archbishop Carlson as his secretary and master of ceremonies. With the arrival of Archbishop Rozanski, Father Povis transitioned into full-time ministry at the Cathedral as our Parochial Vicar. He quickly became a vital part of parish life, taking on responsibilities that included Anima Christi, RCIA, celebrating Masses, and hearing confessions. His deep love for the Church and the people of God was evident in everything he did. One of his most lasting contributions has been the launch of the “What Catholics Believe” series—a bimonthly opportunity for our parishioners to grow in faith and community. Through his teaching, preaching, and presence, Father Povis has left a meaningful and lasting mark on our parish family.

While we will miss both of these good priests, we entrust them to God’s care and to the communities they will now serve. I am confident that they will continue to bring the same dedication and pastoral love to their new assignments as they have shown here. Please keep them in your prayers in the days ahead, and join me in thanking them for their years of faithful service

Msgr. Breier

Prayer for Priests

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your divine grace. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest. Amen.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Telling Our Story with Conviction and Humility

As we prepare next year for milestone anniversaries of our country and archdiocese, the truth of our glory is subtle and powerful

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

In Ephesians 2, St. Paul refers to Jesus as the “capstone” of our faith.

Or ... maybe he refers to Jesus as the “cornerstone” of our faith.

The Greek term is unclear. Translators and interpreters aren't sure which of those two St. Paul means, and a reasonable case can be made for either.

But both can be helpful ways to think of Jesus!

Architecturally, the cornerstone is where a building starts. Everything is measured from it. Christ certainly functions that way in the Church and for our faith.

A capstone, by contrast, is the last piece placed in an arch. Before the capstone is placed, the arch doesn't hold together; it would collapse! After the capstone is placed, all the parts are fitted together; the arch can bear its own weight. Christ certainly plays that role in the Church and in our faith, too!

I bring this up partly because it's interesting, but also because one year from now we'll celebrate the 200th anniversary of the Archdiocese of St. Louis and the 250th anniversary of our country. How we think of the cornerstone and capstone of faith shapes how we live as Christians. Likewise, how we think of the cornerstone and capstone of our national identity shapes how we live as Americans.

We often tell the story of our country in terms of independence. We treat independence as the cornerstone and capstone of what it means to be America and to be American. And that's certainly part of our story! But it's not the whole story.

In the founding of our nation, we would never have defeated Great Britain unless we had asked for and obtained the help of France. Asking for help and depending on others is a cornerstone of our history and identity, too.

ARCHBISHOP
MITCHELL
ROZANSKI

SERVE THE LORD WITH GLADNESS

In the Westward expansion of the nation — which was important to the unfolding of our sense of national identity — the Lewis and Clark expedition played a foundational role. That expedition was certainly full of ingenuity and courage. But it also wouldn't have succeeded if the Corps of Discovery had not been welcomed by the Mandan and Hidatsa peoples during the first over-wintering in present-day Bismarck. We were never a people who succeeded simply by muscling through hardship; we have always also been a people who were welcomed and helped by others.

I am no fan of the revisionist history project which says that there are no glories in our national story. I think there are glories! But I also think those glories have deeper, more subtle contours than we sometimes admit. Learning those deeper contours helps us to tell our story better. Telling our story better helps us to live our national identity better.

As we think about celebrating our 200th anniversary as a diocese, we know we have to tell our story with both humility and conviction. Why humility? Because we haven't lived our faith perfectly and will continue to live it imperfectly. Why conviction? Because the Gospel we have shared and will continue to share offers people the greatest gift: eternal life.

As we celebrate July 4th this year and look forward to celebrating the 250th anniversary of the nation next year, let's ponder a similar lesson. There is a glory to America. And that glory is meant to be a gift to the whole world! But the full truth of that glory is at once more subtle and more powerful than the muscular, individual achievement of independence.

Sacraments

Congratulations to Brandon & Julia Chaffay (pictured top left) who were united in the Sacrament of Marriage at the Cathedral Basilica on May 17, 2025.

Congratulations to Bruno & Elise Castaneda (pictured top right) who were united in the Sacrament of Marriage at the Cathedral Basilica on June 7, 2025.

Love is patient, love is kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth.

1 Corinthians 13:4-8

Congratulations and God's continued blessings on Brigid Catherine and the Krewet Family (pictured bottom right) She was baptized on May 25, 2025.

"And now why do you wait? Rise and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on his name."

Missionary Discipleship - Eternal Life

In today's second reading, St. Paul's second letter to Timothy, St. Paul states, "For I am already poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith." How many of us can say that – that we have kept the faith?

St. Teresa of Calcutta said, "God doesn't call us to be successful, He calls us to be faithful." How many times have we been blinded by the success of the world at the expense of our faith?

Matthew Kelly says, "Take one minute each day to remind yourself that you are just passing through this life and will die one day; you will live more intentionally with a passion and purpose."

Let's use St. Joseph, Jesus's foster father, as an example of how to live. He reached the end of his life in a state of peace, full of faith, and hope in Jesus Christ.

St. Patrick Center Casserole Program

Home-cooked casseroles and non-perishable foods provided by volunteers of the St. Louis Basilica Casserole Program provide one week of nutritious dinners for St. Patrick's Women's Night Program and/or canned goods for the community pantry. Volunteer coordinators will hold the next "drop off" of casseroles and pantry food on Thursday, July 10, 2025 from 1-2pm in the St. Louis Cathedral Basilica parking lot. This is a parish based group that benefits St. Patrick's Center.

For anyone interested in joining our efforts, please call Skip or Nicki Batchelor at 916-834-4843 for more information. All volunteers are welcome.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

"O God our Creator... we ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith."

USCCB, "Prayer for the Protection of Religious Liberty"

Stewardship Reflection

"I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith." (2 TIMOTHY 4:7)

How many of us can say this? St. Teresa of Calcutta said, "God doesn't call us to be successful, he calls us to be faithful." How many times have we been blinded by the success of the world at the expense of our faith? Matthew Kelly says, "Take one minute each day to remind yourself that you are just passing through this life and will die one day; you will live more intentionally with a passion and purpose."
