FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners

This weekend we welcome to the parish Sister Itati who is a member of the Servants of the Lord, a missionary Institute of religious sisters. Sister Itati is coming to us as part of the Missionary Cooperative Appeal that takes place throughout the Archdiocese. From their beginnings in San Rafael, Argentina in 1988 they have grown to about 1600 sisters missioning in 45 different countries throughout the world.

They strive to go where the presence of religious sisters is most needed. Although they are an international community, the sisters have been blessed with over 100 vocations from the United States. This appeal allows them to inform the members of our parish about their mission work in Argentina. As you may imagine, missions in places like Argentina are in great need of support. The sisters work in several schools, providing education for children and teenagers. They also have two homes for persons with special needs.

Since most of the school students and residents in the houses of mercy come from poor families, the sisters also take care of the families by giving them some assistance. As you may know, Argentina is not economically stable at present. The sisters daily strive to help those in need. They are most grateful to all of you for your prayers, contributions, and generosity; truly a grace from God.

Monsignor Henry Breier

Highlighted Missions: San Rafael's "City of Charity"

The "City of Charity" is an important work of our Religious Family. In these Homes of Mercy, our sisters care for disabled women, mothers who otherwise would not be able to care for their babies, orphaned children or those from troubled families, and young girls who have been abandoned or separated from their families. The City of Charity also includes similar homes for boys and men, which are run by the IVE priests and seminaries. Children and youth who belong to the Homes "St. Gianna Beretta Molla," "St. John Bosco" and "Rosa Giovanetti" also attend the local parochial school run by our Religious Family.

Missionary Plan of Cooperation

Mission Office Statement: To assist the local Catholic community to grow in awareness of the ad gentes (to the nations) missionary efforts of the Church, both universal and local, and to foster solidarity and support through prayer, sacrifice, and generosity as a natural expression of missionary discipleship. The Mission Office supports the Universal Church through the Pontifical Mission Societies and the Missionary Plan of Cooperation.

One of the most important missionary animation, education and support programs is the Missionary Plan of Cooperation. Each year, the Mission Office accepts applications from missionary groups and dioceses to speak at parishes in the Archdiocese of St. Louis. These groups and dioceses make an appeal for their missionary cause and ask for the parishioners' prayers and financial support. Through this program, parishioners also learn more about the missionary work of the Church, which leads to a better understanding of our baptismal calling to share in the mandate of Our Lord: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations..." (Matthew 28:20). By praying with the missionary and by sharing in the celebration of the Mass, parishioners join their prayers with those of the missionaries and the people they serve.

This program is carried out through (arch)dioceses across the country and encouraged by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. For more information or to become involved with the Mission Office of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, visit archstl.org/mission-office You may also contact Kim Specht, director at 314-792-7655 or missions@archstl.org

Servants of the Lord of the Virgin of Matará (Servidoras)

“We commit all our strength to inculturate the Gospel, that is to say, to prolong the Incarnation, to all men, in the whole of the man, and in the manifestation of man” (Const., 5).

Our specific goal, following the call of John Paul II, is the evangelization of the culture. We seek to inculturate the Gospel in the various cultures so that they can be redeemed. In this way we seek “to sum up all things in Christ” (Eph. 1:10). The Institute was born within the Church; it is nurtured by her wisdom, and therefore; uses the various methods utilized by the Church’s best: the Saints (Const., 5).

Mission

Our mission is the “evangelization of the culture.” This evangelization takes many forms. For example our sisters: work in hospitals, homes for both the elderly and abandoned children, as well as in the aid of the disabled;

- work in Catholic parishes to assist with Catholic education and parochial catechesis;
 - support parish missions and spiritual retreats;
 - are God’s instruments in the struggle to maintain the sanctity of life through active assistance in pro-life outreach programs;
 - give testimony to the faith by means of Christian charity, fostering the unity and the respect of other religions through prayer and dialogue.
- and much more ...

History

On March 19th, 1988, Feast of St. Joseph, Fr. Carlos Miguel Buena founded the Institute Servants of the Lord and the Virgin of Matará, female branch of the Religious Family of the Incarnate Word, in San Rafael, Argentina. We are a religious community of Diocesan Right and together with the IVE we are comprised of Sisters, Priests, Brothers and Third Order members. The two religious Institutes share the same charism, have twin constitutions and both include active and contemplative branches. The sisters now number over 1,400 members present in 42 countries around the world.

Our Name

The first part of our name, “Servants” or Servidoras, refers to the faithful women who stood at the foot of the cross (Lk 8:1-3).

The second part of the name (the Virgin of Matará) refers to the Crucified Christ and His Blessed Mother as found on the Cross of Matará worn by the sisters, since Jesus on His Cross and the Virgin Mary must be the foundations of our spirituality.

Life in the Spirit: The Pathway to Embracing Jesus' Yoke

Living "life in the Spirit" can be described as a way of setting our hearts on the leadings of the Holy Spirit. In his letter to the Romans, St. Paul is very clear that the power of the Holy Spirit is an integral part of the gospel that he had traveled the world proclaiming.

According to Paul, we all have some areas of our lives which are of God and very pleasing to him, and others which are not so good. Paul understood that only by living in the Spirit can we continue to build up those parts that are pleasing and gradually do away with the parts that are sinful and displeasing.

Paul was realistic about how challenging this can be. In one of his most famous passages in Romans, he cries out, "I don't understand my own actions. For I do not know what I want, but I do the very thing I hate" (Romans 7:15). Doesn't our own experience confirm this dilemma? Each of us has our own forms of erratic behavior. In one setting, we can be generous to a fault yet, we can be completely selfish. At one moment we are kind and thoughtful, and in the next moment we are angry and intolerant.

Is this the way God wants us to live? Does he really want us to be haphazard in our actions? To use Paul's words, does God really want us to be alternately controlled by the Holy Spirit one moment and by our selfish desires the next moment (Romans 8:5)?

Brothers and sisters, God does not want us to act and think haphazardly. He wants us to be able to know whether our thoughts come from the Holy Spirit, from the evil one, or from our own desires. He doesn't want us to be left wondering whether our thoughts and actions are pleasing to him. He wants us to know that we really can recognize when our behavior is of him and when it is not. He wants to assure us that we have the power of the Holy Spirit to help us grow in our ability to discern God's will and the movements of the Holy Spirit within us.

The Gospel of the Lord

At that time Jesus exclaimed:

"I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to the little ones.
Yes, father, such has been your gracious will.
All things have been handed over to me by my Father.

No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him.

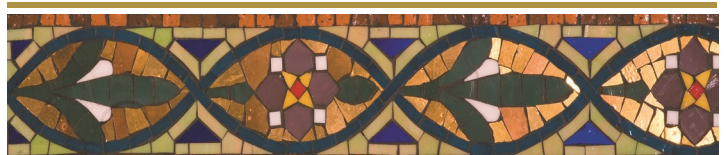

"Come to me, all who labor and are burdened,
and I will give you rest.
Take my yoke upon you and learn from me,
for I am meek and humble of heart;
and you will find rest for yourselves.
For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

Matthew 11:25-30

Praise God for All Blessings

The readings from today encourage us to praise God for all the blessings of our lives. The first reading is a song of praise for the coming of the Kingdom of God. The second reading tells us to live by the Spirit, for the Spirit will bring life to our mortal bodies through Jesus Christ. And in the gospel, Jesus praises the Father and then invites us to follow him, for he helps us when we are stressed and overwhelmed.

The good news is that Jesus assures His followers in the gospel that His yoke is easy and His burden is light, suggesting that the path of discipleship with Him is not burdensome but rather filled with grace, love, and empowerment. Jesus then goes one step further when he describes Himself as gentle and humble in heart, portraying His compassionate and approachable nature that provides comfort and support to those who come to Him.

July: The Month Dedicated to the Precious Blood of Jesus

The month of July is dedicated to the Precious Blood of Jesus. The feast of the Precious Blood was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX, but the devotion is as old as Christianity. The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth by His Blood.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

“...whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me” Matthew 1:38

Pope Benedict XVI said “The world offers you comfort. But you were not made for comfort, you were made for greatness”. “Comfort” puts me first. “Picking up your cross and following Jesus” puts God and others first. Why settle for comfort when you can achieve greatness! Pick up your cross, ask Jesus for guidance on using your gifts and live the life God intended for you!
