FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

On Sunday, July 30th, we will celebrate the retirement of Msgr. Gregory Mikesch, express our gratitude to him for his generous service to the Cathedral Basilica Parish and bid a fond farewell to him. It was in 1975 that Msgr. Mikesch was ordained to the priesthood and went on to serve in several parishes and as a member of the staff of Kenick-Glennon Seminary. Throughout his priesthood, he has touched the lives of many through his homilies and pastoral charity. If you have not done so, please plan to attend the 10 am Mass on July 30th and express your gratitude to him. A reception will follow in Boland Hall.

A few parishioners have asked, what will you do without Msgr. Mikesch's assistance at the Cathedral? Msgr. Mikesch was a great help in the celebration of Holy Mass each day and confessions. After his departure, there will be a bit more for Father Povis and me to cover; however, you will meet Father Patrick Hough, SJ, who has graciously extended himself in service to the Cathedral. Beginning in August, Father will celebrate daily Mass a few days each week and a few Sundays here and there. Father Hough's current assignment is with the administration of the Central and Southern Province of the Jesuits.

Regarding the Women of the Cathedral, which Msgr. Mikesch led faithfully, will continue to meet on the 1st Saturday of the Month following the 8 am Mass for the foreseeable future. Father Povis and I will continue to attend these meetings and assist the Women of the Cathedral in fostering the personal sanctification of its members through emulation and mutual support.

There are many projects that are in motion in the Cathedral Basilica, from the continued work on the upgrading of the lighting to the cleaning of the Baldachino. Soon work will commence on the tuckpointing and restoration of the entire facade of the Basilica, in which the first phase will be the front or the South facade. All of this work is made possible through the generous contributions of parishioners and donors to our Annual Cathedral Gala. Thank you for being so supportive.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Biblical examples show us how to pivot well when facing difficulties

As we near the implementation date for parish changes as part of All Things New, we can make positive pivots

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

July 25 is the feast of St. James, the patron saint of pilgrims.

One of the things we know about pilgrimages is that there will be difficulties. As if by a spiritual law, things don't ever go quite as planned!

We also know from experience that things tend to turn out OK anyway. In fact, because the pilgrimage is in God's hands, things often turn out better, in ways we couldn't have planned or anticipated, because of the difficulties.

As a result, we often look back and think to ourselves, "I wish I had handled that better when it happened!" Veterans of pilgrimages sometimes become quite good at this: Knowing that surprises are going to happen, they've learned to make unexpected events a pivot into deeper trust and surrender to God rather than a pivot into frustration.

Developing a better "pivot" when things don't go as we would wish — that's worth reflecting on!

That was the story of Israel's wandering in the desert. We read several episodes of that journey this week.

The people are pursued by Pharaoh's army. Naturally, they're afraid. How do they pivot on that fear? Unfortunately, they pivot into complaining: "Why didn't you just let us die in Egypt?"

The people are in the desert. Naturally, they grow hungry. How do they pivot on their hunger? Unfortunately, they pivot into grumbling: "Why didn't you leave us in Egypt? At least we had enough to eat!"

These are great instances of how the Bible uses "counterexample" to teach us. Israel's pivot isn't being held up as an example for us to imitate. It's a counterexample for us to avoid. The Bible is asking us:

ARCHBISHOP MITCHELL ROZANSKI

SERVE THE LORD WITH GLADNESS

When you face a similar situation, how can you dig deeper and do better than this? What would a better response to challenges — a better pivot — look like?

In the Gospel reading for the feast of St. James, the apostles give us another counterexample. James and John want to sit at Jesus' right and left in His kingdom. Hearing this, the other apostles grow indignant. Jesus gathers them and says, in effect: "That's the wrong pivot! Naturally, you all want to be great. But pivot on that desire into service rather than competition."

We close the week with the feast of Sts. Martha, Mary and Lazarus (July 29). There are two Gospel readings to choose from that day. Together, they give a perfect example of how we can develop our "pivot point." In one option, we hear the famous story of Martha and Mary. Naturally, as hostess, Martha has a lot of work to do. But she pivots from that work into annoyance at her sister. In the other option, Lazarus has died. Naturally, Martha is sad. But she pivots on her sadness in a different direction: into faith in Jesus.

The week begins with the wrong pivot: Israel's pivot from fear into complaining. It ends with the right pivot: Martha's pivot from sadness into faith in Jesus. As we near the implementation date for parish changes as part of All Things New and the effective date for new priest assignments, what natural emotions are you experiencing? What pivot are you making on those emotions? And how can your pivot point learn from biblical examples and counterexamples?

The Three Parables

The readings for today are focused on the Kingdom of God. The first reading reminds us that God desires justice and has shown us the way of kindness. The second reading tells us that the Spirit aids us in our weakness. And in the Gospel, Jesus gives us three parables related to the Kingdom of God, including the parable of the weeds in the wheat, the parable of the mustard seed, and the parable of the yeast.

- Coexistence of Good and Evil: In the gospel for today Jesus presents the reality that in this world, both the children of the kingdom (believers) and the children of the evil one (unbelievers) will coexist until the final judgment, highlighting the presence of evil and the challenges faced by believers in a fallen world.
- Spiritual Warfare: The parable depicts the ongoing spiritual battle between good and evil, illustrating the strategies of the enemy to sow deception and hinder the growth of God's kingdom.
- Patience and Delayed Judgment: The parable emphasizes God's patience and long-suffering, as He allows both the wheat and the tares to grow together until the harvest, symbolizing the delay of final judgment and the opportunity for repentance.
- God's Sovereignty: The parable portrays God's ultimate sovereignty and authority over the final judgment, when the wheat (righteous) will be gathered into His kingdom, and the tares (wicked) will be cast into eternal punishment.
- Growth and Fruitfulness: The parable highlights the importance of spiritual growth and fruitfulness in the lives of believers, as represented by the wheat, emphasizing the need for genuine faith and righteous living.
- The Kingdom's Expansion: Additionally, in the Gospel for today, Jesus teaches that the kingdom of God will expand and grow, starting small but eventually encompassing many people, cultures, and nations, reflecting God's plan for the expansion of His kingdom.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

"Married love differs from any other love in the world. By its nature, the love of husband and wife is so complete, so ordered to a lifetime of communion with God and each other, that it is open to creating a new human being they will love and care for together. ... That power to create a new life with God is at the heart of what spouses share with each other."

"Married Love and the Gift of Life"

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

“The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field...He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom.” - Matthew 13:24, 37-38

As children of God, we are all “good seeds”. We are blessed by God with the potential to accomplish much good in the world. We fulfill God’s plan when we spend time in prayer every day, use our skills to help others and share our financial gifts to help build God’s kingdom on earth. Through our example of gratitude and generosity we sow “good seeds” on earth and ultimately help each other get to Heaven!
