WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Storms in St. Louis last week dumped 25 percent of the city's annual rainfall onto the streets in 12 hours. Neighborhoods around the parish and parishioners themselves reported destroyed cars and property damage. The Cathedral Basilica was not immune to the vast amount of rain that came down and experienced damage in the basement of the Basilica, school kitchen and cafeteria, boiler room, and basement of the rectory. The water was not just slowly coming out of the drains in the lower areas but, at times, shooting out of the drains like a geyser.

Restoration and clean-up crews have spent most of the week drying out these areas and removing damaged carpet and tile. Gratefully, we are insured by the Archdiocese of St. Louis and have been working closely with the Office of Risk Management. However, the reality is that after we get all the areas cleaned, carpet and tile replaced, and repairs completed, an event like this could happen again. Therefore, it is important for the state and city to look at this issue and work to find solutions that will prevent this from occurring in the future. Until then, we are left with uncertainty about the future.

As families prepared their households for the school year, filling their shopping carts with crayons, notebooks, and backpacks, the Archdiocese of St. Louis and the Office of Catholic Education and Formation prepare by commencing the 2022-23 school year in prayer. On Monday, August 8, at 10:00 am, Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski will celebrate the Mass of Catechetical Commissioning at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis with a blessing for our elementary educators.

Vigilance is a virtue that seems little practiced in our time, but nonetheless, it is essential for our lives. We often let ourselves be weighed down by our toils and our worries. "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also," Jesus says. This is our problem. The treasure for Christians is the Lord, and their lives consist of waiting for him.

The reward of which Jesus speaks will be given to those whom he finds alert. It is an incredible reward that upsets the normal way of doing things: the master himself will become the servant of the servants, he will fasten his belt and invite them to recline on cushions in the hall, and he will come and serve them. This is the fullness of life that can be lived by those who stay alert not for themselves but in welcoming the Lord.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Let's share with others the deeper fruits of our contemplation

We share songs, memes and other items socially, why not extend that to a spiritual level?

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

ARCHBISHOP MITCHELL
ROZANSKI

SERVE THE LORD WITH GLADNESS

We celebrate the feast of Saint Dominic this week (Aug. 8) — happy feast day to all Dominicans!

The motto of the Dominican order is “contemplata aliis tradere” — to hand on to others the fruits of one’s contemplation. That motto contains an important lesson for us as we go through All Things New.

On a natural level we follow this motto regularly: When a song, book, movie, funny meme or something on TikTok delights us, we frequently and easily share it with others.

As Catholics, it’s time for us to take that habit to a deeper level: To share what struck us in a homily or stayed with us in a Scripture passage; to tell others about a favorite faith-based podcast or something that happened in prayer; to share with others the delight we find in Adoration and the peace it brings to us.

As I said, we do this readily enough on a natural level, and when we do, it helps to create natural bonds of friendship. But, then, we tend not to do it on a deeper level, even though the world is starving for greater depth! Instead of sharing the fruits of our contemplation with others, we deprive them of it. At the same time, we deprive ourselves of the deeper friendships that would result if we did.

It’s time for that to change, and part of what I’m excited about for All Things New is the opportunity to change it. In this sense, we could all use a little more Dominican spirituality in our lives!

We’ll be reading from the prophet Ezekiel all this week. He received the prophetic call in Babylon the first prophet to receive the call outside the Holy Land. God was doing something new through Ezekiel!

Ezekiel was sent with two basic messages for Israel, and they speak right into our situation. The first was about the end of something beloved; the second was about something new.

The end that Ezekiel prophesied was the destruction of Jerusalem. The magnitude of this prophesy and its fulfillment in Jewish history — was almost unthinkable at the time. Jerusalem seemed like the bedrock of ancient Judaism. How could the life of faith possibly go on without it?

But that’s where the second message came into play: God would give Israel a new beginning. The destruction of Jerusalem wouldn’t mark the end of their relationship with God. Instead, God’s renewed covenant with Israel would offer them a new way of living out that relationship.

The hard truth and the hope that Ezekiel delivered to ancient Israel makes me think of the hard truth and the hope that we face in All Things New. Some things that are dear to us will end. But right in the midst of that ending God is offering us a new beginning — an invitation to new and deeper ways to live out the faith.

May St. Dominic pray for us as we learn to go deeper in sharing the fruits of our contemplation. And may we all take heart from the message of Ezekiel, knowing that endings and new beginnings are a regular part of the life of God’s people.

Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis

RCIA

Have you ever thought about becoming a Catholic?
Do you know someone who might be interested in becoming Catholic?
Are you interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church?
Is your spouse, fiancé, neighbor, or friend interested?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (or RCIA) enables those who are interested in the Catholic faith to “find out what it is all about”.

Most often, people come because they are invited.

Be the voice of Christ and offer the first invitation to someone you know who might be interested in the Catholic faith!

RCIA is for persons who have never been baptized, were baptized in another Christian tradition, or were baptized Catholic but have never celebrated Confirmation or received First Communion.

Anyone who is interested in deepening their understanding of the Catholic faith is also invited to attend!

The 2022-23 RCIA session will begin on Sunday, September 11.

To register or for additional information, please contact Fr. Zac Povis at 314-373-8204 or email zacharypovis@archstl.org

COME SING WITH US!

The Archdiocesan Choir, Cathedral Choir, and the Cathedral Schola Cantorum are seeking new voices!

Rehearsals begin September 6th & 7th.

Auditions are required for participation.

Auditions will be held on August 2nd, 3rd, 16th, & 17th from 6:00-9:00pm

CATHEDRAL CHOIR

The Cathedral Choir sings regularly at the 10:00am Sunday Mass, as well as for various solemnities and celebrations. The choir is a mixed choir of professional singers and volunteers that is open to everyone who can make a commitment to the weekly rehearsal on Wednesdays from 7pm to 9pm in the Saint Cecilia Chapel and service schedule. An audition is required in order to participate. Prerequisites for an audition are a healthy voice, a good ear, and choral experience.

CATHEDRAL SCHOLA CANTORUM

The Cathedral Schola Cantorum is composed of select members from the Cathedral Choir. Membership is by audition only. The Cathedral Schola is especially dedicated to the Catholic repertoire of the "Golden Age of Church Music", the 16th and 17th centuries, as well as Gregorian chant.

The ARCHDIOCESAN CHOIR

The members of the Cathedral Choir are also the core of the Archdiocesan Choir, which sings for major Archdiocesan celebrations and some concerts. Those rehearsals are held every Tuesday from 7pm to 9pm in the Saint Cecilia Chapel. In order to participate a simple audition is required. It is encouraged that music directors, cantors, and choir members of the parishes of the Archdiocese prayerfully consider participation in the Archdiocesan Choir. It is a wonderful opportunity for a greater sense of community throughout the entire archdiocese.

AUDITION REQUIREMENTS

Those interested in auditioning for any choral ensembles should visit:

where they will find audition materials as well as a signup portal. Auditions for the choral ensembles will be held August 2nd, 3rd, 16th, and 17th, 2022. A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

"Only with prayer—prayer that storms the heavens for justice and mercy, prayer that cleanses our hearts and souls—will the culture of death that surrounds us today be replaced with a culture of life."
