FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Around this time each year, a parish must submit what is called the “Status Animarum” (state of souls) report to the Archdiocese. This report includes a tabulation of the number of parishioners, Sacramental events, and financial condition for the parish. Numbers alone do not describe the spiritual vitality or culture of a parish faith community. However, they are an important snapshot of what is happening at any particular moment in time. Here are the statistics for the Cathedral Basilica Parish from July 1, 2023, through June 30, 2024:

- 780 Registered Households
- 53 Baptisms
- 22 Confirmations
- 33 Weddings
- 12 First Communions
- 16 Funerals

The number of registered households (whether large family or a single person) increased slightly over last year. It is important to note that most of the weddings and funerals celebrated at the Cathedral are for those who are not directly members of the parish. As part of our mission, we are happy to host these sacraments.

The important background for any parish statistics is the alarming decrease in religious affiliation, whether Catholic, Protestant, or Jewish in recent years. Reliable sociological studies indicate several factors contributing to the growing secularization in our country. As individual parishioners, we work to provide a welcoming atmosphere for people in church, a prayerful and faith-filled worship, and active engagement in serving the poor. We must always be conscious of inviting people to become Catholic. Ultimately, the work of evangelization depends on our cooperation with the grace of the Holy Spirit.

There has been a change in our office staff as Andrew Specht, our Office Manager, has taken a position at Saint Simon the Apostle parish. Andrew has taken on more responsibility as the parish's Business Manager and will have a much shorter drive to work from his home. I am grateful to Andrew for his outstanding service to the Cathedral Parish and wish him all the best as he begins this new chapter of his life. One of our current employees, Susie Irons, has taken on the role of Administrative Assistant in the parish office. She brings her many years of experience and institutional knowledge of the Cathedral with her to this position, and I am pleased that she will take on this role.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Let's Allow Our Lives to Become a Resting Place of God on Earth

What was fulfilled in Mary through the Assumption becomes a pledge and a path for each of us

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We celebrate the feast of the Assumption this week, on Aug. 15, and “the place of God’s rest” is a major theme of the readings.

Jerusalem was meant to be the place of God’s rest in ancient Israel. God’s people were meant to be the place of His rest as well. Mary became the place of God’s rest in the Incarnation. And each of us is invited, spiritually, to follow the path of Mary and become a place of God’s rest in the world. As St. Elizabeth of the Trinity says: “Grant my soul peace. Make it your heaven, your beloved dwelling, and the place of your rest.”

But here’s the tension we live in: We don’t always provide a resting place for God!

We read from the prophet Ezekiel all week, and his basic message is the contrast between obedience and rebellion in ancient Israel. In effect, God says, through the prophet: “My city and my people have not made a resting place for me, therefore they will not experience rest.”

In saying that, we need not point fingers at anyone else. That’s the history of the Church through the ages as well. More importantly, it’s the story of each one of us. All of us have known times when we let God find a place in our lives and, in turn, we experienced His peace. All of us have likewise known times when we did not let God find a place in our hearts and, in turn, the restlessness that characterized our lives at those times.

Precisely in that context — reflecting on the struggles of ancient Israel, of the Church throughout history

ARCHBISHOP MITCHELL ROZANSKI

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

and of each one of us in our own lives — the feast of the Assumption offers us a word of hope.

At the Annunciation, Mary offered herself, body and soul, to be the resting place of God on earth. And, without knowing all the details, we can be sure she spent the rest of her life doing so over and over. Then, when the course of her life on earth was finished, it was fitting that she would be assumed, body and soul, into heaven. There’s a beautiful symmetry to it: She who had been the resting place of God on earth was brought into the eternal rest of God in heaven.

In doing so, Mary became the fundamental pattern for the Church and marked out the path for each one of us. As Pope Benedict XVI once said about the Assumption: “What happened to Mary is also valid, though in a different but real way, for every man and woman, because God asks each of us to welcome Him, to place at His disposal our hearts and our bodies ... so that He can dwell in the world ... And if we say ‘yes,’ like Mary, in the same measure of this our ‘yes,’ this mysterious interchange will also happen for us and in us: we will be assumed into the dignity of the One who has assumed our humanity.”

What was fulfilled in Mary becomes a pledge and a path for each of us. This week, as we celebrate the Assumption of Mary, let’s also follow her pattern: Let’s allow our lives to become a resting place of God on earth so that we might one day enter the resting place of God in heaven.

Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

On Thursday, August 15th Catholics and many other Christians celebrate the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This significant feast day recalls the spiritual and physical departure of the mother of Jesus Christ from the earth, when both her soul and her body were taken into the presence of God.

Although the bodily assumption of Mary is not explicitly recorded in Scripture, Catholic tradition identifies her with the “woman clothed with the sun” who is described in the 12th chapter of the Book of Revelation. The passage calls that woman's appearance “a great sign” which “appeared in heaven,” indicating that she is the mother of the Jewish Messiah and has “the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.” Accordingly, Catholic iconography of the Western tradition often depicts the Virgin Mary's assumption into heaven in this manner.
