FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This Monday, August 15, the Church celebrates one of the most important feasts of the Liturgical Year dedicated to Mary Most Holy: the Assumption. At the end of her earthly life Mary was taken up, body and soul, into Heaven, that is, into the glory of eternal life, into full and perfect communion with God. Thus, in contemplating the Virgin Mary, we are granted the grace and the ability to see our own life indepth also.

With its problems and hopes, our daily existence receives light from the Mother of God, from her spiritual journey, from her destiny of glory. Through her life of discipleship, she teaches us how to become a more perfect follower of Christ and reminds us of our eternal reward through this feast.

Located on the Western Wall of the chapel dedicated to Our Blessed Mother, we find a representation of her assumption into heaven. In the foreground is the empty tomb with the wondering Apostles gathered around. Center in the mosaic is the figure of Our Blessed Lady, bourn aloft by angelic hosts. In the lunette above, she is shown to us as a Refuge of Sinners. Two penitents, overcome with sorrow for their sins, cling to her side, and at her feet, a mother pleads for the grace of final repentance of her dying son.

I encourage you to make a visit to the chapel as the dim religious light of the chapel is made for prayer, and at all hours of the day, we find our Lady's clients kneeling in homage before her altar. When they have gone to take their places in the busy world, the gleam of the votive lights remain in this place of prayer in the testimony of their loyalty to their Blessed Mother and their confidence in her intercession.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

The Lesson of Continuity & Change is a Great Theme in Salvation History

As we have done in other areas of our lives, we need to shift how we organize some aspects of our faith life

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

One of the outstanding features of this week's reading (the Twentieth Week in Ordinary Time) is its parables. Jesus tells the parable of the landowner who hired workers for his vineyard at different times of day but paid them all the same wage.

Jesus also tells the parable of the king who gave a wedding feast for his son, and all of the invitees refused to come.

Ezekiel tells the parable of the dry bones coming back together and coming back to life.

It makes me think of parables for the All Things New pastoral planning process.

Imagine a business owner who continued to pour resources into maintaining a Blockbuster Video store, despite the rise of movie streaming platforms.

Imagine a town that continued to pour resources into maintaining a pay phone on every square block, despite the prevalence of cell phones in the community.

Imagine an electronics store pouring resources into keeping enough vacuum tubes for television repair, or an enormous supply of "rabbit ear" antennae, despite the shift to flat-screen TVs and the prevalence of cable television among its customers.

Note well: movies, phones, and televisions remain prominent parts of people's experience. But how we think of them, buy them and use them has shifted dramatically — and the organization of community and business life has shifted accordingly.

Similarly, the faith itself will not change through the All Things New process. We won't be "modernizing" the liturgy, for example. There will still be priests, bishops and deacons. The sacraments will remain what they have been.

But the way we pour resources into buildings and some organizational structures has fallen out of date and has to change. We've shifted how we organize so many other areas of our lives — and done so happily. We need to shift how we organize some aspects of our faith life as well — and I believe we can do so fruitfully.

We celebrate the feast of the Assumption on August 15. One of the great biblical themes of the feast is "the ark of the covenant."

At first, the ark is a particular thing; it holds the 10 Commandments and some of the manna from the Israelites' experience in the desert. The ark both symbolizes and manifests the presence of God among Israel.

Then the ark becomes a particular person — Mary. When the Word takes flesh in her, she becomes the one who carries the presence of God within herself and among the people.

Finally, by the gift of the Holy Spirit, each one of us is a potential ark because God becomes present amid his people through us.

God has always been, and will continue to be, present among His people. But there has always been continuity and change in how God is present. The lesson of continuity and change is a great theme in salvation history. It's also a great parable for thinking about what we are experiencing with All Things New.

RCIA

Have you ever thought about becoming a Catholic?
Do you know someone who might be interested in becoming Catholic?
Are you interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church?
Is your spouse, fiancé, neighbor, or friend interested?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (or RCIA) enables those who are interested in the Catholic faith to “find out what it is all about”.

Most often, people come because they are invited.

Be the voice of Christ and offer the first invitation to someone you know who might be interested in the Catholic faith!

RCIA is for persons who have never been baptized, were baptized in another Christian tradition, or were baptized Catholic but have never celebrated Confirmation or received First Communion.

Anyone who is interested in deepening their understanding of the Catholic faith is also invited to attend!

The 2022-23 RCIA session will begin on Sunday, September 11.

Reflection on the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary August 15, 2022

The Solemnity of the Assumption celebrates the Blessed Mother's entrance into heavenly glory. The Catechism explains that Mary "was taken up body and soul into the glory of heaven, where she already shares in the glory of her Son's Resurrection, anticipating the resurrection of all members of his Body" (CCC, 974).

Mary's Assumption into heaven reminds us that life on earth is a pilgrimage to our ultimate destination. We prepare in hope for our own passage into eternal life by the choices we make today. When we choose to love and follow God in our daily lives, we strengthen our relationship with Him, and this relationship is the true meaning of heaven: "To live in heaven is 'to be with Christ'" (CCC, 1025 citing St. Ambrose, In Luc., 10, 121: PL 15 1834A.).

We can see how, throughout her life, the Blessed Mother continually chose to go deeper into her relationship with God. She modeled how to value and respect His precious gift of human life, from the moment of conception to its natural end. In the Annunciation, through her "yes," Mary witnessed to the undeniable humanity of unborn children as she conceived and carried the Christ child in her womb. After the Annunciation, having learned that her cousin Elizabeth was with child, she went in haste to her aid.

Our Blessed Mother shows us how the way we live today can prepare us, in hope, to also enter into heavenly glory at the end of our lives. Are we open to God's precious gift of new life? How do we support expectant mothers and parents of young children? Do we prioritize showing our love and care for loved ones who are ill or aging?

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“Although we may feel unsure how best to comfort those who mourn, we must stand with them in their time of suffering. Miscarriage touches the lives of many people, yet all too often this tragedy remains unaddressed. This lack of response not only often leads to unresolved grief, but also fails to clearly manifest our belief that each person, from conception onward, is precious and unique.”

The Men of the Cathedral cordially invite all parishioners and visitors to join them with Adoration of the Holy Eucharist on Tuesday, Aug 30 at 6 PM. We will meet in the Nave of the Cathedral Basilica.

We are gratified to see more people joining us for Adoration, both men and women; parishioners and visitors who have heard of the evening and seek a closer relationship with Christ.

So many among us are suffering silently. If this is you, or you are praying for someone with a special intention, please join us in personal prayer at Adoration to ask God to intercede and aid those who may feel along and without hope.

Adoration will begin promptly at 6 PM. Confessions will be heard during Adoration.

All men are invited to drinks, dinner, and fellowship in Boland Hall immediately after the conclusion of Adoration. A suggested donation of $20 is appreciated.

For dinner reservations, please contact Michael Weisbrod at 314.918.2893 or michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org by Monday, Aug 29th.

Women of the Cathedral

Dear Cathedral Parish Ladies,

Come grow in faith and fellowship together with other parish ladies at the monthly gatherings of the Women of the Cathedral.

On Saturday, September 3, 2022, Labor Day weekend, we will begin with 8am Mass in the Cathedral, and then go to Boland Hall for a light breakfast hosted by two gracious hosting ladies ("the coffee pot never goes empty"). After brief introductions, an informative program will be led by Msgr. Mikesch, our spiritual director, with closing prayer at 10am.

Our August gathering was a delight with many new voices around the table, and Eckert's bakery goods from one of our generous ladies on our plates. There was light-hearted sharing how and why many of us text (too funny), and seriously, why we may leave a vacant chair at for Elijah when we meet next, the depth of prayer in our hearts when praying to each Person of the Trinity, and more from the spiritual masters for our own spiritual journeys.

For more information and to RSVP for the breakfast, please text or phone Barbara Murray at 314-974-6900 or email murraybj@swbell.net by August 31, 2022. We also collect questions for "Ask Msgr Time" when you RSVP.

Anima Christi Young Adults

This week there will be a meeting on Thursday, August 18th. We will meet in the church at 6:30pm for Holy Hour followed by dinner in Boland Hall.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"Do you think I have come to give you peace on Earth? No, I tell you, but rather division."

Luke 12:51

Many of us like to play it safe, not cause waves with our family and friends, especially when it comes to politics and religion. We don't want to cause any turmoil. However, many times this is at the expense of the truth. The truth being Jesus Christ. Too many people are misguided because they rely on their own limited human ability to reason and are not allowing faith in God to guide them. Form your conscience; take a stance for life, marriage and religious liberty.
