Welcome to Our Visitors

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment, as is access to the Cathedral Gift Shop.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

Dear Parishioners,

This week a new staff member joined us as our Facilities Manager. His name is Timothy Dunn, and he is also a Permanent Deacon currently assigned to Our Lady’s Parish in Festus, MO. Tim’s job will supervise and maintain all service aspects of building support functions at the Cathedral Basilica. As you begin to see Tim around the parish, please join me in extending a warm welcome to him.

As we welcome a new member to the parish staff, we are also saying goodbye to two staff members. Laura Voegelie has been with the Cathedral Basilica for close to 20 years in various roles and most recently as our Office Manager. Every day you will find her greeting visitors to the rectory at the door, answering the phone, inputting data in our database, and publishing our weekly bulletin—all of these functions she does with a smile on her face. Her last day will be this coming Friday, October 15th. Feel free to stop by to express gratitude to her.

Larry Borowiak, our sacristan, has decided to retire. While Larry will be leaving us in this role, you will still find him serving the 12:05 Mass on Mondays and giving tours of the Basilica. During my short time at the Cathedral, I can tell you how vital the work of a Sacristan in a Cathedral is to the day-to-day operation. Please join me in expressing Larry gratitude for his service to the Cathedral Basilica.

Don’t forget about our All Souls Novena. You are invited to send us the names of the deceased loved ones you wish included in the Novena, and they will be remembered collectively in a Mass each day for nine days. In addition to our prayer, the name and image of your loved one will be displayed in our chapel, and you will receive a lovely Mass card with the name of your departed loved one inscribed inside. To enroll a loved one or for more information, please visit cathedralstl.org/all-souls.

Jesus invites us in the Gospel this week to put God before everything, even before our possessions, and consider the poor as our brothers and sisters to whom we are in debt of love and help. It may seem that the Lord is asking us to give something up, and he is, partly. But what the Lord is asking is, in fact, a great wisdom of life. Jesus’ answer to the question Peter asks in the name of the disciples explains the consequences of this evangelical wisdom. Those who leave everything to follow Jesus receive a hundred times as much during their life and will receive eternal life after their death. Sometimes we think that Gospel life is only deprivation. The rich man thought like this. Actually, following Jesus is extremely “convenient,” not just for the future salvation of our souls, but also to enjoy a hundred times as much life on this earth.

St. Paul says the Gospel is the medicine of immortality

Because of that, we should invite others to share in this medicine, rather than keeping it to ourselves.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

How would it be if we had a medicine that could cure the world of some sickness like cancer and, instead of letting everyone know, we kept it to ourselves?

It would be among the most selfish, insensitive and uncaring things we could possibly do.

And yet that’s precisely what we often do when it comes to the Gospel. A living relationship with Jesus is the cure to sin and the medicine for eternal life! But we tend to keep it to ourselves.

We’ll be reading St. Paul’s letter to the Romans for the next four weeks. The Church clearly wants us to think long and hard about it! One of the things St. Paul says in it is: “I am not ashamed of the Gospel. It is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes.” St. Paul believes that the Gospel is the medicine of immortality. He cannot, in good conscience, keep it to himself. He wants to give everyone a chance to have this medicine. Do we believe that, too?

Who has the sickness to which the Gospel is the cure? St. Paul answers, in Romans: “All have sinned and are deprived of the glory of God.” Everyone has the sickness. Jesus is the medicine. And faith is the means by which we receive the medicine — a major theme of chapters three and four in the letter to the Romans.

There’s a natural desire to share the discovery of good things. It comes out in all kinds of ordinary ways. We hear a good song, see a good movie, find a helpful app or a good restaurant, and we become “evangelists” — sharing the good news with friends, family, and even strangers: “Listen to this song!” “Try this app.” “I went to this restaurant and it was really good — give it a try!”

There’s no pressure there, just an invitation. And yet, when it comes to the Gospel, we hesitate. Why is that?

Part of it may be that our relationship with Jesus is a more intimate part of our lives, and modesty calls us to protect what’s most intimate. But I don’t think that’s the whole truth about why we hesitate to share the Gospel.

Part of it may be that we’re unsure how to share — we don’t want to be pushy. But we can borrow from our experience with other good things that we share. Give a witness: “Hey, I did this, and it was really good.” Follow it with an invitation: “Think about giving it a try.” When it comes to restaurants and movies, that approach isn’t pushy. It simply opens a door for someone — a door they might not have known was there. They still get to decide whether to walk through. The same can be true of how we share the Gospel: It opens a door.

In the Gospel of Luke, Jesus says: “I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before others the Son of Man will acknowledge before the angels of God. But whoever denies me before others will be denied before the angels of God.” What will happen, then, if we possess the medicine that can save people from sin and death and we remain silent?

Pro-Life Mass

Remember to join us at the Cathedral Basilica on the third Saturday of each month for a pro-life Mass at 8:00 a.m., followed with a rosary procession to Planned Parenthood at Boyle and Forest Park. The next Mass is scheduled for Saturday, October 16.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“An old Irish proverb says, ‘It is in the shelter of each other that the people live.’ Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life’s end, we may not know how best to ‘shelter’ them. Here are some concrete ways we can compassionately care for them: usccb.org/end-of-life-care.”

Infant Baptism

According to the mind of the Church, parents are obliged to see that infants are baptized within the first weeks after birth. As soon as possible after the birth, or even before it, parents should request the sacrament for their child and are to be properly instructed in preparation for it. Godparents are also encouraged to attend baptismal preparation before the child is born. If you are a registered parishioner who is or is about to become a parent or godparent, contact Laura Voegelie at 314-373-8202 to schedule a baptism or to register for baptismal preparation class.

Daily Readings for the Week...

The readings are included each week so that the parishioners who are unable to join us for daily Mass will be able to consider and pray them in union with the whole Church.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving
“It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” (Mk 10:25)

Jesus uses tough language that we may not want to hear. But, we are all called to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the ones we pick and choose, but all our gifts, and especially the one that means the most to us! That includes our time in prayer to God, our talent in participating in parish ministries and our treasure supporting our local parish and other charities.

This movie tells the whole life story of John XXIII from his youth through his young priesthood, episcopacy, life as cardinal, and eventually his life as Pope. Share Everything
In today’s Gospel Jesus tells the rich young man to sell everything, give to the poor and follow Him. The rich young man’s response – he went away sad for he had many possessions. Each of us is that rich young man. God calls us to be generous with all of our gifts, not just the one or two gifts that we choose, but especially that one gift that means the most to you. When it comes to sharing, we typically give away what we have the most of. We share what we have “leftover” instead of sharing our “first fruits” – our first and best. Of all the gifts that God has given us the one that He wants the most is our heart. When we share all of our gifts, we keep God first in everything. Visit archstl.org/dynamic for more info.

The Rosary Month
October has long been time within the Church’s life when the holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary has been prayed with special concentration and intention. The devotion of the Rosary has been a strength of Catholic Faith for centuries. It is the prayer of the little ones as well as the powerful. It is an open invitation to holiness by immersing oneself in the mysteries of Christ using the eyes and heart of His mother. Everyone is encouraged to pray the Rosary daily.

Matthew 25 Come Alive
Often we find ourselves approached on the street with requests for assistance for food or a bus pass. In order to live Matthew 25, parishioners should considering carrying fast food gift cards and a book of bus tickets. That way, you can provide substantive assistance when asked, without resorting to cash. Also, encourage those seeking assistance to call 2-1-1, United Way’s assistance hotline, or the Cathedral’s SVDP HotLine at 314-373-8288.

All Souls Novena At The Cathedral Basilica
As the seasons change and we anticipate the beginning of November, our thoughts turn to our deceased loved ones as we prepare for the liturgical feasts of All Saints and All Souls. We remember them in life and we pray that “perpetual light will shine on them” and God will welcome them into eternal joy.

You are invited to remember deceased loved ones in prayer during the Cathedral Basilica’s All Souls Novena, nine days of prayer for the departed, beginning on November 2. Please send us the names of the deceased loved ones you wish included in the Novena, and they will be remembered collectively in a Mass each day for nine days.

In addition to our prayer, the name and image of your loved one will be displayed in our chapel, and you will receive a lovely Mass card with the name of your departed loved one inscribed inside.

Let us remember our departed loved ones by storming the gates of heaven with prayers on their behalf, praying with confidence the words: “Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. May perpetual light shine upon them.”

Enrollment for the All Souls Remembrance is available for purchase on our website at https://cathedralstl.org/all-souls.
