WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I would like to begin with a reminder that the Cathedral parish will host two listening sessions on Saturday, November 5 and Monday, November 7. This is part of the strategic planning initiative of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, All Things New. Currently, we have about 20-30 for each session.

The purpose of these sessions is for the Archdiocese to hear more robustly from parishioners about their specific parish. The Archdiocese of St. Louis will host over 300 of these sessions throughout the 178 parishes between October 8 and November 19. After the final listening sessions in each planning area, the Archdiocese will make public the content presented at all the parish's listening sessions and will offer an additional opportunity for parishioners to provide open-ended feedback through an online survey.

To sign-up, please go to <https://allthingsnew.archstl.org/Ways-to-Engage/Listening-Sessions> Also, the Archdiocese had prepared "workbooks" for each parish demonstrating demographic, enrollment, and financial trends. To view parish workbooks, go to <https://allthingsnew.archstl.org/Ways-to-Engage/Parish-Workbooks>.

Parishioner feedback on the models presented at the listening sessions is critical as it will be used to help shape the future of the Archdiocese of St. Louis. Therefore, I highly encourage you to take the time and attend one of these listening sessions hosted at the Cathedral to hear what is proposed and give your feedback.

Don't forget about our All Souls Novena. You are invited to send us the names of the deceased loved ones you wish included in the Novena, and they will be remembered collectively in a Mass each day for nine days. In addition to our prayer, the name and image of your loved one will be displayed in our All Souls Chapel, and you will receive a lovely Mass card with the name of your departed loved one inscribed inside. To enroll a loved one or for more information, please visit cathedralstl.org/all-souls.

Please mark your calendar for Sunday, October 30 at the 10:00 am Mass; we will welcome members of men and women religious orders to the Annual Mass for Consecrated Life. Each year the Archdiocese of St. Louis celebrates consecrated life and congratulates all the jubilarians who are commemorating their 25th, 50th, 60th, 70th, 75th, etc. anniversaries.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Good questions make for effective tools for evangelization

ARCHBISHOP

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

When we ask good questions, we open people up to noticing what God is doing in their lives

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

What's your particular way of bringing out the best in others?

That question is a great conversation starter. It's one way of distinguishing between a natural ability and a charism — a gift of the Holy Spirit. It's a great way to start noticing what God is doing in and through you and others.

This week we read from Psalm 1. It's said that the Psalms convey every human emotion and draw them all into prayer. If that's the case, and if it were up to you, what would you put in the first Psalm, and what would you put in the last Psalm?

It's not up to us, of course! But, again, it's a great question: It's a way of drawing out what's most prominent or most important in another person's experience.

What do you think the Kingdom of God will be like?

Jesus uses a whole series of metaphors to talk about the Kingdom. We hear two of them this week: the mustard seed that becomes a great bush and the yeast that leavens a great quantity of flour. But it's worth thinking about: If you could pick a metaphor, what would yours be? Asking this question is a great way to find out more about a person's imagination, what they look forward to or where they find rest and refreshment.

Good questions make for great conversations. They're also a really effective tool for evangelization. We often think that evangelization means having all the right answers. But asking good questions shows people that we're open to them, and that we want to open a door rather than push them through a door. When we ask good questions, we open people up to noticing what God is doing in their lives. Getting people to notice that for themselves is a huge part of evangelization.

So let's keep going.

This week, in Ephesians 2, St. Paul talks about Jesus as the "capstone" of our faith. It's interesting that, in biblical Greek, there's no distinction between the word for "cornerstone" and the word for "capstone." But those are different architectural realities. The cornerstone is the first stone put in place and everything else in a building is measured from it. The capstone is the last stone placed in a catenary arch (like the St. Louis Arch) and it holds the entire structure together. So, in what ways do you experience God as the cornerstone of your life — the baseline for measuring everything else? And in what ways do you experience God as the capstone of your life — the one who allows everything to fit together? If you could experience one of those more deeply, which would it be?

Finally, this week, in Ephesians 6, we hear St. Paul use a metaphor for the life of faith. He speaks of it as the armor of God, and develops the metaphor: the helmet of salvation, the breastplate of righteousness, the shield of faith and so on. If you could articulate a metaphor for the life of faith, what would it be?

What elements of music (harmony and discord?), or exercise (teamwork and perseverance?), or gardening (watering and weeding?) and so on would you use?

All Things New is meant to energize our sense of evangelization. If we could get better at asking good questions, I think we might find evangelization to be a less daunting task.

Celebrating 200 Years

The Society for the Propagation Of The Faith
WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Be the Lord’s ‘Witnesses’ in Prayer and Support This World Mission Sunday.

Today, World Mission, Sunday, Pope Francis reminds us that in Baptism we are all called by the Lord to be His missionaries: “You shall be my witnesses” (Acts 1:8). Joining Catholics worldwide this Sunday, we offer our prayers and generous financial support, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, to the Pope’s missions.

When you contribute to the World Mission Sunday collection, you make it possible for the Pope to provide mission support to:

- 844,000 catechists teaching the faith
- 258,540 Religious Sister caring for children and families
- 38,140 seminarians preparing for the priesthood
- 26 million children in primary schools
- 12,000 clinics caring for the sick and dying
- 8,750 homes for orphaned children and the elderly

Your prayers are most treasured, and they, along with financial help offered today, World Mission Sunday, answer Christ’s call to be my witnesses. Thank you!

Women of the Cathedral

Dear Cathedral Parish Ladies,

Come grow in faith and fellowship together with other parish ladies at monthly gatherings of the Women of the Cathedral.

We will gather next, on Sunday, October 29, 2022, a week earlier due to a calendar conflict. We will begin with Mass in the Cathedral, and then move to Boland Hall for a light breakfast hosted by our gracious ladies. After brief introductions and social time, an informative program is led by Msgr. Mikesch, our spiritual director, with closing prayer at 10am. A popular highlight is “Ask Msgr. Mikesch Time.”

At our last gathering the influences of family in passing on faith traditions were identified by each of us around the table. Mothers were often named as most influential in shaping our faith. One can only imagine what this must have been life for Mary and Joseph with Jesus.

To learn more and RSVP for breakfast, contact Barbara Murray at 314-974-6900 or email murraybj@swbell.net by October 26, 2022. Send questions for “Ask Msgr Time” when you RSVP. Thank you.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. ...But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope. ...The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.”

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Luke 18:14

Pride and ego are the root causes of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable or your talent is better than anyone else or your money gives you status is another way of making those things "gods" before God. Pride is the opposite of humility. Remember, all that we have and all that we are is a gift from God. We should be humbled by God's incredible generosity and be grateful for all we have been given. Ultimately, gratitude leads us to humility.
