FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

The month of November draws its special spiritual tone from the two days with which it opens: the Solemnity of All Saints and the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed (All Souls). The mystery of the communion of saints illuminates this month directing our meditation to the earthly destiny of each one of us in light of Christ's Paschal Mystery.

We have a great response for our Cathedral Basilica All Souls Novena beginning on All Souls Day. We will remember these souls at a Mass each day of the Novena, beginning on All Souls Day, November 2. Also on November 2, the Archbishop will be here to celebrate a special Mass to remember the priests of the Archdiocese of St. Louis who died this year in addition to those we pray for during our Novena. There will be candles placed along the sanctuary that symbolize the lives of each priest who passed away in the last year.

It was in the middle of the 11th Century that St. Odilo, Abbot of Cluny (France), decreed that all Cluniac monasteries offer special prayers and sing the Office for the Dead on November 2, the day after the feast of All Saints. The custom spread from Cluny and was finally adopted throughout the Roman Church. Throughout the month of November, the Book of the Dead - another custom commemorating our deceased - will be located in the All Souls Chapel. Please feel free to inscribe the names of your loved ones in this book so that we may remember them.

As we pray for our deceased loved ones, it bears a calling to mind the teaching of purgatory. I truly like what Pope Benedict once said in one of his homilies: "Purgatory basically means that God can put the pieces back together again." Which leads to ask the question what will it be like?

Saint Catherine of Genoa, a mystic known for her vision of purgatory indicates that it will be a type of fire, though not like that used to describe the experience of hell. "Rust which is sin, covers souls, and ... is burnt away by fire, the more it is consumed, the more the soul responds to God. ... As the rust lessens and the soul is opened to the divine rays, happiness grows," she wrote.

Fire has a lot of effects: light, heat, warmth and destruction. But when a precious metal is placed in its midst, it's purified and perfected. Purgatory is a letting go of habits, vices, and ways of thinking or knowing that prevented us from loving as we ought during our lifetime.

The poet Dante likened the soul's experience in purgatory to climbing a mountain, the summit being paradise. The climber might have to shed things that are bogging him down on the ascent. That process, of course, can be grueling, but with every step, one moves closer to the goal.

A roadmap to transform ourselves to know Christ better

What is standing in the way of us transforming from what we are into all that God wants us to be?

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The words of St. Gregory of Nazianzus can guide us into our celebration of the feasts of All Saints and All Souls on Nov. 1: “What is this new mystery surrounding me? I am both small and great, both lowly and exalted, mortal and immortal, earthly and heavenly.” Truly, we live in that tension!

The readings for the week unpack the meaning of his statement by noting three things:

- 1) Who we are — we are already God’s beloved children;
- 2) What we can become — we can be perfectly conformed to Jesus, receiving His divine life within us;
- 3) What it takes to get there — it requires a process of transformation and purification.

As 1 John 3:3 says: “Everyone who has this hope [of immortality] based on Him [Jesus] makes himself pure, as He is pure.” And as St. Paul says: “He will change our lowly body to conform with His glorified body.” (Philippians 3:21)

In what ways can we be transformed from what we are into all that God wants us to be?

A thought from paragraph 78 of the Vatican II document “Gaudium et Spes” — which we read in the Office of Readings this week — offers one possibility. It says: “The human will is weak and wounded by sin; the search for peace, therefore, demands from each individual constant control of the passions.”

We all have passions that we need to master! But which passions most need work differs from one person to another. For one it’s lust. For another it’s anger. For others it’s gluttony, envy, pride.

There’s a roadmap for transformation. What if we were to take the month of November, identify one passion we need to master and start working on it? Psychologists say it takes 90 days to establish a new habit, so it will probably take us more than a month to master it! But that could be a great way to begin our transformation.

St. Paul, reflecting on his own transformation, says: “Whatever gains I had, these I have come to consider a loss because of Christ.” It’s not that the previous things weren’t good, in their own way. But: 1) they just didn’t compare to the good of knowing Christ, and 2) they actually prevented him from coming to know Christ!

This offers us another avenue into our own transformation. What do we have that distracts us from knowing and loving Christ? For example, Psalm 122 says: “Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.” Many of us know that feeling when someone offers us their Blues tickets. We say, in effect: “Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Blues!” But how many of us have that same feeling about going to Mass on Sunday, or on All Saints’ Day?

It’s not that Blues tickets are bad! But if we think of Blues tickets with more rejoicing than we think of the Eucharist, then something in us needs purification.

We don’t have to be ashamed to admit that most of us have things like that in our lives. Instead of trying to hide those things, let’s look at them with clarity and say: “That’s where I need transformation. Jesus, help me to become more like You there.” If we can do that we’ll be one step closer to the holiness God wants for us, and hopefully closer to wanting it for ourselves.

All Souls Novena At The Cathedral Basilica

As the seasons change and we anticipate the beginning of November, our thoughts turn to our deceased loved ones as we prepare for the liturgical feasts of All Saints and All Souls. We remember them in life and we pray that "perpetual light will shine upon them" and God will welcome them into eternal joy.

You are invited to remember deceased loved ones in prayer during the Cathedral Basilica's All Souls Novena, nine days of prayer for the departed, beginning on November 2nd. Please send us the names of the deceased loved ones you wish to be included in the Novena, and they will be remembered collectively in a Mass each day for nine days.

In addition to our prayer, the name and image of your loved one will be displayed in our chapel, and you will receive a Mass card with the name of your departed loved one inscribed inside.

Let us remember our departed loved ones by storming the gates of Heaven with prayers on their behalf, praying with confidence the words, "Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them."

Enrollment for the All Souls Remembrance is available for purchase on our website at <https://cathedralstl.org/all-souls>.

Men of the Cathedral

Adoration and Dinner

We are quickly approaching the end of the Church year with Advent and Christmas coming very soon. This is the perfect time for all parishioners and guests, both men and women, to join the Men of the Cathedral for monthly Adoration. Our regular attendees as well as our first time participants find the evening to be so fulfilling. They look forward to the next month and often bring a friend or family member.

We will meet in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel on Tuesday, November 29, 2022. Adoration begins at 6 PM.

Confession will be available during Adoration.

After Adoration, all men are invited to Boland Hall for dinner. This is a terrific way to reflect on your year, thank God for all the blessings He has bestowed upon you and to enjoy the friendship and fellowship of other Catholic men seeking religious fulfillment.

Please RSVP to Michael Weisbrod at michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org or 314.918.2893 by Monday, November 28th. The cost is $20 per person at the door and includes dinner and beverages.

Women of the Cathedral

Dear Cathedral Parish Ladies,

Come grow in faith and fellowship together with other parish ladies at monthly gatherings of the Women of the Cathedral.

We will gather next, on Saturday, October 29, 2022, a week earlier due to a calendar conflict. We will begin with Mass in the Cathedral, and then move to Boland Hall for a light breakfast hosted by our gracious ladies. After brief introductions and social time, an informative program is led by Msgr. Mikesch, our spiritual director, with closing prayer at 10am. A popular highlight is "Ask Msgr. Mikesch Time."

At our last gathering the influences of family in passing on faith traditions were identified by each of us around the table. Mothers were often named as most influential in shaping our faith. One can only imagine what this must have been life for Mary and Joseph with Jesus.

To learn more and RSVP for breakfast, contact Barbara Murray at 314-974-6900 or email murraybj@swbell.net by October 26, 2022. Send questions for "Ask Msgr Time" when you RSVP. Thank you.

40 Days for Life

The Cathedral Basilica has adopted Sunday, October 30th as its day for the 40 Days of Life fall campaign and needs prayer vigil volunteers.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

"The mystery of the redemption of the human person is rooted in the loving involvement of God with human suffering. Hope is always possible. To those who care for the sick, the scene of the Cross provides a way of understanding that even when it seems that there is nothing more to do there remains much to do, because 'remaining' by the side of the sick is a sign of love and of the hope that it contains. Healed by Jesus, we become men and women called to proclaim his healing power and provide care for our neighbors, until the very end."

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.'" LUKE 19:8

We are all called to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the gifts we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but everyone is called to give equal sacrifice. Open your heart and talk to God about how you use your money. How is God calling you to be more generous with your financial resources and possessions?
