Welcome to Our Visitors

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

Dear Parishioners,

I hope that over the past week, you have been able to make a visit to the All Saints Chapel to visit the devotional area we have set up for the All Souls Novena. Every time I make a visit, it strikes me how important it is to remember our family members and friends who have left this world. The Saints who have gone before are models for us as they have faced life’s challenges and walked with God. This is what we hope and pray for as we lift up our family and friends to God. They have blessed us with their lives, and we now bless them with our prayers.

This past Friday we welcomed members of our Armed Forces, both retired and those on active duty, and we recognized those who sacrificed themselves for the peace we enjoy in the United States. When most people think of Veterans Day we think of people going to war in defense of our way of life. We see Army Special Forces, big tanks and guns, the big ships of the Navy, the fighter jets and bombers of the Air Force and Marines storming a coast line.

Most people don’t see the Coast Guard saving people from a sinking ship or plucking people off of rooftops after a flood. They don’t see military doctors and nurses treating people after a disaster or the Air Force loading their big cargo planes with much needed supplies. The National Guard being called out in the middle of the night to search for lost hikers and the Reserves being called to protect and serve areas ravaged by storms. We forget about the Marines and their Toys for Tots and the children’s homes and hospitals all over the world receiving the supplies and equipment they need because a soldier cared.

This veterans day let’s not forget the real heroes: the wives, husbands and children who had to watch their loved ones leave for far off places. They endured being without their spouse, fathers and mothers for months sometimes years at a time. They endured the loneliness hardships, not knowing when or if we would return.

I offer this poem that I recently came upon.

Some people dream the dream
Some people live the dream
Some people defend the dream
God bless the defenders

Monsignor Henry Breier
Consecrating our strengths, weaknesses more deeply to Christ

By opening our hearts to the Sacred Heart of Jesus—as Rose Philippine Duchesne did—we’ll experience our sadness and joy in the light of eternity

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We celebrate the feast of St. Rose Philippine Duchesne — one of the patron saints of the archdiocese — this week (Nov. 18). We sure could use her prayers as we enter the next phase of All Things New! She wasn’t afraid to think big, and she wasn’t afraid to start small, and that same spirit would serve us well. More than anything she wanted to love the people here with the love of the heart of Christ, and to make His love known to them. St. Rose Philippine Duchesne, pray for us!

As we approach the end of the liturgical year we find ourselves reading from the book of Revelation. The passages we read this week refer to a series of messages: “To the angel of the Church in Ephesus, write this…” Similar messages are sent to seven Churches. Each one names some particular strengths and/or weaknesses of that Church, and what they need to do to live in Christ more fully. It makes me wonder: if a message were sent to each of us, or to each of our parishes, or to our whole archdiocese, what would it say? “To the angel of the Church in St. Louis, write this…”

In the spiritual life, our strengths can work for us or against us; the same is true of our weaknesses. When we go through a time of stress — like a major transition — it’s a rule of the spiritual life that we’ll ‘get our buttons pushed’ in both our strengths and our weaknesses. Maybe we could step back, these days, and ask: How is the process pressing on our strengths and weaknesses? Is it drawing the best out of both, or is it drawing the worst out of both? How might we consecrate both our strengths and our weaknesses more deeply to Christ as we go through the stress of transition?

Since the end of September we’ve been reading the “travel narrative” of the Gospel of Luke: all the things that happened to Jesus on His way to Jerusalem (Luke 9-19). This week we reach the end of that narrative: Jesus arrives in Jerusalem. And one of the first things He does is to weep over the city. The destruction of Jerusalem still lies in its future. But here’s the thing: it’s present to Jesus. Because He’s God, all times are present to Him.

It might be fruitful to pray into that in these days of uncertainty. What we experience as the future — all the sadness of closing parishes and schools, all the excitement of concentrating our energy more deeply on the things that matter most, all the mistakes we’ll make in the process, and all the things we’ll get right — they’re in the future to us, but Jesus is already present to them.

If we open our hearts to the Sacred Heart of Jesus — as Rose Philippine Duchesne did — we’ll experience all our sadness and all our joy in the light of eternity. That can bring us some much needed peace in the midst of transition.

Mass Intentions
Specific Mass intentions for each scheduled Mass listed regularly in this bulletin are made by individual request. Every effort is made to accommodate times or dates as requested but when not possible, the intention will be kept as soon as there is an available opportunity. Requests for Mass intentions should be directed to the rectory by calling 314-373-8202.

Intentions for 2023 are now being scheduled.

“For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Jesus turns the idea of leadership on its head. Leadership isn’t for a few people. It is for all of us, we are all called to lead. All of us have been given charisms by the Holy Spirit to help build the Church. And, none of these gifts are too small or insignificant. Leadership is not about me, it’s about all of you. The focus should be on how can I accompany you on your faith journey? How can I help you grow in love with the Holy Trinity? You don’t have to have the title of “chairperson” or “president” to be a leader. Discern what you’re charisms are and use them to lead others to Jesus! Visit archstl.org/dynamic for more info.

Men of the Cathedral
Adoration and Dinner

We are quickly approaching the end of the Church year with Advent and Christmas coming very soon. This is the perfect time for all parishioners and guests, both men and women, to join the Men of the Cathedral for monthly Adoration. Our regular attendees as well as our first time participants find the evening to be so fulfilling. They look forward to the next month and often bring a friend or family member.

We will meet in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel on Tuesday, November 29, 2022. Adoration begins at 6 PM. Confession will be available during Adoration. After Adoration, all men are invited to Boland Hall for dinner. This is a terrific way to reflect on your year, thank God for all the blessings He has bestowed upon you and to enjoy the friendship and fellowship of other Catholic men seeking religious fulfillment.

Please RSVP to Michael Weisbrod at michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org or 314.918.2893 by Monday, November 28th. The cost is $20 per person at the door and includes dinner and beverages.

Eucharistic Exposition
The Blessed Sacrament, the very presence of Christ’s body and blood in the Eucharist, is reserved in the tabernacle of the Blessed Sacrament Chapel to the east of the main sanctuary. At all hours the Cathedral is open, people may be found praying there before the Lord “face to face.”

Each Saturday afternoon, beginning at 3:30 p.m., the Eucharist is displayed for prayer and adoration in public exposition in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel for a holy hour. Following this holy hour, the Evening Prayer of the Church with Benediction is celebrated. Additionally, the Blessed Sacrament is displayed for public adoration and prayer on the First Friday of the month.

First Friday Adoration begins at approximately 8:30 a.m., following the completion of the 8:00 a.m. Mass, and concludes with Benediction at 11:45 a.m. Our next First Friday Adoration will be held Friday, July 1st.

Women of the Cathedral

Dear Ladies of the Cathedral Parish,

Come grow in faith and fellowship together with other ladies in the parish at the monthly gatherings of the Women of the Cathedral.

We will gather next on Saturday, December 3, 2022. We begin with 8am Mass in the Cathedral, and then move to Boland Hall for a light breakfast. After brief introductions and social time, an informative program is led by Msgr. Mikesch, our spiritual director, with closing prayer at 10am. A popular highlight is "Ask Msgr. Mikesch Time." At our last gathering the ladies shared with each other a male and female they feel close to and pray to, this being part of a living tradition linking many faithful men and women who have gone before us.

To learn more and RSVP for breakfast, contact Barbara Murray at 314-974-6900 or email murraybj@swbell.net by November 30, 2022. Please send your questions for "Ask Msgr. Mikesch Time" when you RSVP.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving
“...Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us.” 2 THESALONIANS 3:9

Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don’t go around bragging about it. But through their words and actions, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and others desire this in their own life. Know that the way you live your life may be the only interaction others may have with our Catholic faith.
