WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available most weekdays, call for availability.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

John the Baptist is the last prophet before Jesus. On this Second Sunday of Advent, the Church turns to the Gospel of Luke, which first introduced John in its Infancy Narrative that reports on the early life of John and Jesus. John is the herald of the Good News; he points out the Lamb of God, the Savior. He is the Precursor to the Messiah.

In this Sunday's gospel passage, Luke presents John as the one fulfilling one of the prophesies of Second Isaiah. He is a voice crying out in the desert, 'Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths. Every valley shall be filled and every mountain and hill shall be made low. The winding roads shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth, and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.' In presenting this message to the reader, Luke introduces a theme prominent in his gospel: the universality of salvation. Throughout the gospel of Luke, Jesus extends the promise of salvation to people of diverse backgrounds.

The Baptist's message was clear: repent of your sins and prepare to meet the Lord. He himself was not the Messiah but he proclaimed the Messiah's imminent arrival. The Advent season is all about the coming of the Lord. During December, prepare for the coming of the Lord by making a worthy confession of your sins and by living a virtuous life. Come Lord Jesus, come!

This coming Monday, December 9, we will celebrate the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, which is a Holy Day of Obligation. Masses for the holy day will be celebrated at 7:00 am, 8:00 am, 12:05 pm, and 5:30 pm.

Mary Immaculate helps us to rediscover and defend what lies within people, for in her is a perfect transparency of the soul in the body. She is purity in person, in the sense the spirit, soul and body are fully consistent with one another and with God's will. Our Lady teaches us to be open to God's action and to see others as He sees them, starting with the heart, by looking at them with compassion, love and infinite tenderness, especially those who are lonely, despised or exploited.

This feast finds its origin in a moment in time when Our Lady appeared to Saint Catherine Laboure in the year 1830. The message of the Blessed Mother was to have a medal made with the words: "O Mary conceived without sin pray for us who have recourse to thee." The wearing of this medal quickly spread and led to a great devotion to Our Lady as the Immaculate Conception, which was declared to be a teaching of the church in 1854.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Jesus Wants to Turn Our Deserts Into Gardens

Jesus offers us the supernatural gift of the living water of His forgiveness

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We celebrate two great Marian feasts this week: the Immaculate Conception (observed on Dec. 9 this year) and Our Lady of Guadalupe (Dec. 12).

In conjunction with the two feasts, I'd like to ask two questions: 1) How can we receive Jesus more deeply into our lives? 2) How can we proclaim Jesus more deeply to others?

With respect to receiving Jesus more deeply, I propose that Jesus wants to turn our deserts into gardens. Our deserts are the places where we've turned away from God, the source of living water, and turned in on ourselves. We each have our own ways of doing that, but the effects are universal: Some dimension of our life becomes arid, lifeless for ourselves and others.

In contrast to modern culture, Jesus doesn't declare that our desert already is a garden. Instead, He wants to transform the desert into a garden by watering it with His forgiveness. To receive that water, however, we have to be repentant.

Note carefully: Jesus never declared that purity was a prerequisite for His coming to us and inviting us to follow Him. His incarnation, His ministry and all of salvation history testify that He came to sinners. But He did, and still does, declare that purity is required for us to remain with Him forever. His incarnation, His ministry and salvation history testify to that as well. We don't have to be pure to keep walking on the path of discipleship, but purity is where the path is going.

I think, if we grasp and hold firmly to both of those points about purity, we can receive Jesus more deeply into our lives.

How do we proclaim Jesus more deeply to others? I think it's a variation of the same theme. Let me

ARCHBISHOP MITCHELL
ROZANSKI

SERVE THE LORD

paraphrase this Friday's Gospel reading: "We gave the invitation to everyone, including those not yet pure, and they said, 'Look, they compromise with sin by giving the invitation to sinners.' We invited people to purity in all its fullness, and they said 'Look, they ask the impossible — no one can really be pure.' But the wisdom of Church teaching is vindicated by doing both because Jesus — who is wisdom incarnate — did both."

The impurity of someone's life should never cause us to withhold Jesus' invitation. But we also need to be clear about the purity He invites us — all of us — into. I think, if we grasp and hold firmly to both of these points, we can proclaim Jesus more deeply to others.

Ancient Israel wasn't capable of following God by its own strength, but only by a supernatural gift. Mary wasn't capable of conceiving the Son of God by her own strength, but only by a supernatural gift. St. Juan Diego wasn't capable of making roses bloom in winter, or imprinting the image of Our Lady on his tilma by his own strength; all of these came by a supernatural gift.

The same pattern holds for us: We're not capable of turning our deserts into gardens by our own strength. If we're open to it, though, Jesus offers us the supernatural gift that makes it possible. And when He turns our deserts into gardens, we can more easily and convincingly tell others that Jesus wants to — and can — do the same for them.

Christmas Memorial Poinsettias

The poinsettias and greenery that adorn our Cathedral are a special part of the celebration of Christmas at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis. We invite all parishioners and visitors to share in the experience through a memorial or thanksgiving gift by purchasing one or more of the poinsettias decorating the Nativity Scene or the Chapels. Memorial Poinsettias are $10.00 each. Names of those being honored will appear in the weekend and Christmas bulletins.

Please indicate in whose memory or in whose honor you wish the flowers to be dedicated. Completed forms and payment may be placed in an envelope and dropped into the weekend offertory baskets, OR mailed to: Cathedral Basilica of St Louis, c/o Memorial Poinsettias, 4431 Lindell Blvd, St. Louis, MO, 63108

Finance Council Overview

As we reflect on the past year, I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for your unwavering generosity and dedication to the life of our parish. Your support has been a source of strength, and together, we have continued to foster a vibrant and thriving community of faith.

The offertory gifts you so faithfully provide are the backbone of our parish operations. These contributions ensure that we can continue our day-to-day ministry, provide for our staff, maintain our facilities, and support the many programs that serve our parish family. Your sacrificial giving makes all of this possible, and for that, I am deeply grateful.

I also want to take a moment to acknowledge the incredible success of our annual Cathedral Basilica Gala. This event, through your generosity and that of the many Friends of the Cathedral Basilica, supports our capital improvements and the long-term health and growth of our parish. The funds raised allow us to enhance and preserve our facilities and ensure that our church remains a welcoming and beautiful place of worship for generations to come.

Thank you for your prayers, your presence, and your support in all its forms. May God bless each and every one of you, and may we continue to grow in faith, hope, and charity as we serve one another in His name.
