WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available most weekdays, call for availability.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Just under the South Dome of the Cathedral you will find a mosaic on the Eastern wall of Cardinal Ritter which is present to recall his work with interreligious dialogue and the integration of our Catholic schools. It is a history that many forget or tend not to recall. The progress for civil rights for blacks has been painstakingly slow. There are countless names of men and women who have worked for positive change, and in their efforts, sometimes experienced fierce opposition. I would like to call to mind one of many voices, Joseph Elmer Cardinal Ritter. In his time as the Archbishop of St. Louis, Cardinal Ritter mandated all pastors to integrate their parochial schools. On September 11, 1947, 500 people gathered from twenty-three parishes to persuade the archbishop to reverse his stance. He did not.

The following Sunday, protest attendance rose to 700, representing forty-three parishes. The plea had no affect and so they raised money for an injunction against the Archdiocese. Some were already transferring their children to city public schools. Cardinal Ritter heard of the injunction while in Perryville visiting parishes. He wrote a letter to be read from every pulpit the next Sunday reminding the faithful of the obligation under Canon 2314 to support the bishop of their diocese and that any interference in the performance of his duty could carry a sentence of ex-communication of the offender. This set the tone for future developments in the secular realm of Brown v. School Board of Topeka, Kansas, and Shelley v Kraemer.

This coming week, as a nation, we will celebrate Independence Day on July 4th. Just a quick reminder that there will be only one Mass that day at 8:00 am. In the Declaration of Independence, we find these words: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Throughout the course of human events, we have experienced men and women who have given their lives to defend and preserve what we hold most dear. Let us not fail in being grateful to the thousands and thousands of men and women who have fought for equality and served in our Armed Forces to preserve our freedom.

SENT SPECIAL DELIVERY TO ALL CITY AND COUNTY PASTORS, SEPT. 20, 1947.

RG1F6.

The Archdiocese of St. Louis

Office of the Archbishop

3810 LINDELL BOULEVARD

ST. LOUIS 8, MO.

TO THE REVEREND CLERGY AND BELOVED LAITY OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SAINT LOUIS

GREETINGS!

It has come to our attention that a small group of individuals have signified their purpose of taking civil action to restrain us from carrying out a policy which we consider our right and duty as chief pastor of the faithful of this Archdiocese, regardless of race or nationality.

We realize that many of these good people are being gravely misled. Consequently, we take this occasion to remind them of their filial obligation as Catholics to cooperate with their Bishop and Clergy and their fellow Catholics in issues which are fundamental in our holy Catholic Faith, namely, not only the equality of every soul before Almighty God, but also obedience to ecclesiastical authority.

After mature deliberation, and fully confident of the loyalty of the faithful, we now deem it opportune to caution them publicly. By the general law of the Church, there is the serious penalty of excommunication, which can be removed only by the Holy See. This penalty is incurred automatically should an individual or group of individuals, without permission, in violation of Canon 2341, presume (that is, after full knowledge) to interfere in the administrative office of their Bishop by having recourse to any authority outside the Church.

We hereby direct that this letter be read at all the Masses on this the Seventeenth Sunday after Pentecost and Feast of Saint Matthew, September 21st.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

+ Joseph E. Ritter

Most Rev. Joseph E. Ritter
Archbishop of Saint Louis.

Dated at the Chancery Office,
September 20th, 1947.

Cleaning of the Baldacchino

We are now one month into the cleaning of the baldacchino and mosaics in the sanctuary. Vibrant colors that have been covered in dust for decades have begun to emerge. The above photo shows brilliant blues, reds and the various shades of gold that adorn the top of the baldacchino. The marble that was seemingly gray has been restored to its original off-white brilliance.

We expect that this project will continue for at least 3-4 more weeks. As always, we are extremely grateful to the John Tiedemann Company for all their careful and thorough work.

For more photos of the progress and updates on the process, please see any of our social media pages for frequent posts and updates.

The Gospel of the Lord

Jesus said to his Apostles:

“Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me,
and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me;
and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.
Whoever finds his life will lose it,
and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

Whoever receives you receives me,
and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.

Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man’s reward.
And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple—amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward.”

Matthew 10:37-42

Putting God’s Kingdom First

In today’s Gospel, Jesus prepares His disciples for their mission of spreading the Good News to the world. He speaks of prophets and the rejection they often face, foreshadowing the challenges the apostles will encounter in their ministry. Like the prophets of old, the apostles are called to proclaim the truth fearlessly, even in the face of adversity.

Jesus further emphasizes that nothing should take precedence over our commitment to God, not even family. While familial ties are essential, discipleship demands an unwavering dedication to God’s kingdom. This teaching underscores the radical call to discipleship, where our love for God should surpass any earthly attachments. By prioritizing our devotion to God above all else, we open ourselves to a deeper relationship with Him and allow His grace to guide our every action.

The Corporal & Spiritual Works of Mercy

The Corporal Works of Mercy have their roots in the teaching of Jesus Christ and have been practiced by Christians throughout history. The concept of the Corporal Works of Mercy can be traced back to the Gospel of Matthew, where Jesus says, “For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.” (Matthew 25:35-36)

These acts of kindness towards the vulnerable and marginalized have been recognized as essential aspects of Christian faith and have been practiced by Catholics for centuries.

The Corporal Works of Mercy include feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, sheltering the homeless, visiting the sick, visiting those in prison, burying the dead, and giving alms to the poor. These works are not only seen as ways to help those in need, but also as a way for individuals to grow in holiness and to emulate the love and compassion of Christ.

In addition to Corporal Works of Mercy, there are also seven Spiritual Works of Mercy, which include instructing the ignorant, counseling the doubtful, comforting the sorrowful, admonishing sinners, forgiving offenses, bearing wrongs patiently, and praying for the living and the dead.

Together, the Corporal Works of Mercy and the Spiritual Works of Mercy provide a comprehensive framework for how Catholics can live out their faith by serving others and practicing compassion towards all people. The Works of Mercy are not only a way for Catholics to help those in need, but also a way to grow in faith and deepen their relationship with God.

A Prayer on Independence Day

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord. (Psalms 33:12)

While the United States celebrates its independence on the 4th of July, it is important to pause for a moment and ask God to bless and protect this great nation.

Below is a short prayer from the Roman Missal to pray for the United States on Independence Day.

Father of all nations and ages,

We recall the day when our country claimed its place among the family of nations;

for what has been achieved we give you thanks, for the work that still remains we ask your help, and as you have called us from many peoples to be one nation, grant that, under your providence, our country may share your blessings with all the peoples of the earth.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

July: The Month Dedicated to the Precious Blood of Jesus

The month of July is dedicated to the Precious Blood of Jesus. The feast of the Precious Blood was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX, but the devotion is as old as Christianity. The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth by His Blood.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

“...whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me” Matthew 10:38

Pope Benedict XVI said “The world offers you comfort. But you were not made for comfort, you were made for greatness”. “Comfort” puts me first. “Picking up your cross and following Jesus” puts God and others first. Why settle for comfort when you can achieve greatness! Pick up your cross, ask Jesus for guidance on using your gifts and live the life God intended for you!
